ITALIANS CAPTURE 37 AUSTRIAN TOWNS; ZEPPELINS RAID LONDON, KILLING FOUR

AUSTRIAN AVIATORS ATTACK SEAPORTS IN ITALY, SLAYING ONE

London, June 1 (5:01 p. m.)—Ninety bombs were dropped in the raid on London last night by Zeppelin airships. Four persons were killed and a few were injured.

No public building was damaged. This information was given out officially today.

Udine, Italy, June 1 (11:40 a. m. via Paris 3:10 p. m.)—Italian troops have occupied 37 villages surrounding Cortina in the Ampezzo Valley.

The troops which occupied these towns constitute the Italian army which is invading the province of Trent from the east, simultaneously with invasions from the south and west. The town of Cortina, occupation of which by the Italians was effected yesterday lies sixty miles northeast of Trent. Municipal authorities of Cortina today sent a telegram to King Victor Emmanuel, expressing their loyalty to him and recalling his visit there when he was crown prince. They also sent telegrams to Dowager Queen Margherita.

Rome, June 1 (via Paris)—Austrian aeroplanes have flown over Bari and Brindisi, seaports on the Adriatic in Southern Italy. They threw bombs which killed one person and wounded two others.

London, June 1—The Russian bark Montrosa was blown up by a mine last night in the North Sea 25 miles from Spurn. The vessel sank. Her crew was landed at Hull today by a Norwegian steamer.

London, June 1.—The Zeppelin raids on the metropolitan area last night has brought a recrudence of the anti-German demonstrations. The feeling against Germans is acute. Crowds have attacked German shops and special constables have had to be called out to deal with the people.

The statement of the authorities on the raid is as follows:

In amplification of the information which appeared in this morning's newspapers the following particulars of last night's Zeppelin raid in the metropolitan area are now available for publication. Late last night about 90 bombs, mostly of an incendiary character,

SAYS GERMAN REPLY IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

London, June 1—"The German note in reply to the communication of the United States concerning the Lusitania, the text of which is before us this morning, is a document of great importance in the evolution of sea law, and it leaves questions the substance of which concern us all," says the Westminster Gazette in an editorial this morning.

Continuing the newspaper says the point that previous to this war it was an unquestioned principle that a belligerent who seized an enemy merchantman was responsible for the safety of the combatants whether passengers or crew, in an extreme where, for his own safety, the belligerent sank the vessel, he was under the obligation to provide for the passengers and crew.

"In the early stages of the war," the Westminster Gazette continues to say, "we saw this obligation honorably acknowledged by captains of the Emden and other German cruisers."

The American note stands for this. The German reply argues that danger from a suspicious vessel is reason for the sinking of it so quickly that her crew and passengers are unable to escape. Originally Germany said neutrals entering the war zone were liable to destruction; now she says she has no intention of sinking neutrals who are not guilty of hostile acts. "It is evident that what is at stake is not a question of fact but a principle, facts of consequence are admitted in the reply."

TREMORS FELT IN NEW YORK

New York, June 1.—Earth tremors of unusual severity were recovered on the seismograph at Fordham University here today. The disturbance which appeared to be about 3,500 miles from New York, lasted an hour and nine minutes

PROHIBITS NAVIGATION

Washington, June 1—Navigation in the straits of Messina between half an hour after sunset and half an hour before sunrise has been prohibited by the Italian government which has advised the American embassy at Rome today merchant vessels of the allies and neutral governments must await authorization to enter, keep three miles off shore and exchange signals with land stations.

SAYS EMBARGO WILL HELP MEXICO FAMINE

Washington, June 1.—An embargo against exports of arms to Mexico and against imports of foodstuffs to the United States as a step in relieving famine conditions below the Rio Grande, was proposed today to President Wilson by Miss Mabel Boardman of the executive committee of the Red Cross.

Reports to the Red Cross and the state department indicate that in the presence of the famine foodstuffs are being shipped out of Mexico to the United States, Cuba and elsewhere and, in the United States is being sold cheaper than over the Mexican line. As an experiment Red Cross food supplies will be sent to American consuls who will form responsible local committees to distribute them. The dispatch of two carloads of supplies to Monterey will test that method.

Governor Withycombe of Oregon has advised the Red Cross he will appeal for aid and other governors are expected to reply to the Red Cross appeal.

President Wilson announced today he probably would defer making public his statement on Mexican affairs until tomorrow morning.

The president said he would decide definitely after conferring today with the cabinet. While he did not go into details about the statement, it still was understood that it will warn the factions that they must improve conditions immediately.

ASK THAT FRANK BE PUT TO DEATH

Atlanta, June 1.—The Georgia prison commission granted a hearing today to a delegation which represented the protest of mass meeting in Marietta last night against commutation of Leo M. Frank's sentence. Mary Phagan whose murder Frank was convicted of formerly lived at Marietta. The spokesman of the delegation said they represented almost the entire population of the county. They asserted the prisoner had a fair trial and that there was no ground for commutation. One of the speakers was interrupted by T. E. Patterson, a member of the commission, who said:

"Judge Roan, in his letter, said he doubted Frank's guilt. He thought a man ought not to be hanged unless the jury, the judge and the governor were satisfied of the man's guilt and Judge Roan was not satisfied."

WANTS EXTRA SESSION.

Washington, June 1.—Senator Kern, the Democratic floor leader, today discussed an extra session of congress in October with President Wilson. The president said afterward that the proposal was under consideration, but he had come to no conclusion.

LOS ANGELES ELECTS

Los Angeles, June 1.—One of the most spirited political fights in the history of this city was being decided today at the polls. The main issue was the mayoralty contest between Charles E. Sebastian, chief of police, and Frederick J. Whiffen, president of the city council.

JAPAN DECIDES TO STRENGTHEN DEFENSE

Tokio, June 1.—The government's policy of military development was approved by the house today in an exciting session. By a vote of 232 to 131 the house adopted the provision for an increased standing army of two divisions, or about 24,000 men. It then approved the entire budget including the naval program which provides for construction of three submarines and eight torpedo boat destroyers.

The victory of the government was emphatic. There was no such strong opposition as appeared in the previous diet which was dissolved by the emperor for rejecting the cabinet's military program. Speeches of government and opposition leaders showed that all parties favored some form of military and naval development.

WILL PROBE "EXPENSES" OF STATE LEGISLATORS

Columbus, June 1.—Alleged unwarranted expenses of the general assembly will be investigated by State Auditor Donahey, he declared today after starting an audit of legislature's affairs. Ten day's extra pay for employees of the assembly was held up unless it is proven they stayed at work and rendered actual services for their pay, the auditor said.

He also will investigate why long distance telephone bills of many members were so high. He pointed out the case of one legislator who charged telephone bills of more than $70 to the state. Half of that was to a certain newspaper to which he gave accounts of his record in the assembly, Auditor Donahey reported. Another practice into which the auditor said he would make inquiry is that by which each legislator takes home with him the set of the general code which was put into his desk at the opening of the session.

"I also want to know where the senate attendants bought those pocket knives, card cases and other trinkets which were distributed among members early in the session," said Mr. Donahey. "They are not shown on vouchers and evidently were paid for under other names." Legislative chambers showed scenes of packing activity today following the adjustment of the session late Saturday night. More than 150 boxes had been ordered, one for each member, and in these sergeants-at-arms packed a set of the general code, stationery, and other personal effects of members. They will be shipped to the homes of legislators.

CREW OF MAJESTIC IS SAVED

London, June 1.—The secretary of the admiralty today made official announcement that all the officers of the British ship Majestic sunk May 27 off the Gallipoli peninsula by a submarine had been saved.

The announcement made at the time of the sinking of this warship five days ago said that nearly all her officers and men had been saved.

WILL RUSH EMPHATIC NOTE, INSISTING ON AN IMMEDIATE REPLY

Washington, June 1—After more than two hours discussion by President Wilson and the cabinet over international problems with respect to Germany and Mexico confronting the United States, preparation of a second note to Germany was begun and a warning to the factions in Mexico was completed.

No announcement was made further than that the president's statement warning the Mexican leaders to improve conditions will be made public tomorrow morning.

All the cabinet officers were especially calm over what had been said about Germany's reply to the Lusitania note. It was generally understood that while no final conclusion was reached the president listening to a varied expression of views, the government's course would be shaped by tonight or tomorrow at the White House, where the final decision on foreign policies must rest during the adjournment of congress.

The prevailing belief after the cabinet meeting was that the note, probably very brief, would be dispatched to Germany asking whether the Imperial government intends by its answer to disregard fundamental principles of international law. If Germany's answer indicates an unwillingness to recognize what have hitherto been regarded universally as accepted principles of international law, based on customs and laws of humanity, the United States probably will sever diplomatic relations with Germany. That view found expression in quarters close to the White House and was looked upon as the most plausible trend of the American government's policy. When Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, sees President Wilson, unless he brings some new proposal differing from the reply signed by Herr Von Jagow, the German foreign minister, it was believed today in well informed quarters that his visit will not affect the character of the new American note although the president's personal views, it was thought would

CALLS GERMAN REPLY "DIPLOMATIC BLUNDER"

Paris, June 1—Under the caption, "What Will America Do?" the French press comments on Germany's reply to the United States' note of protest regarding the sinking of the Lusitania. All papers agree in characterizing the answer as another German diplomatic "blunder." They declare Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg is endeavoring to open a controversy to gain time.

The Matin says the Imperial Chancellor invites the United States to abandon her neutrality by exerting pressure on Great Britain to induce the latter country to give up her blockade, "that is to say, abandon her naval supremacy" in consideration of which the German admiralty would "cease assassination of the passengers and crews of unarmed ships."

The Journal believes Germany, knowing the calm moderation of President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan, who has resolved not to be forced into anything, precipitately will end by exasperating America. The paper declares the president and secretary of state are Democratic leaders of a Democratic nation who must follow rather than be led by public opinion.

"KAISER'S REPLY ABUSE TO AMERICAN PATIENCE"

Paris, June 1—The afternoon newspapers of Paris, commenting upon the German reply to the American note on the Lusitania, unite in recognizing the gravity of the moment for the United States. An editorial article in La Patrie says:

"Such a reply, awaited by the United States for so long, is an abuse of American patience and presents an unreal basis of discussion. We do not believe that President Wilson, any more than any of his fellow-citizens, will find this response other than a misplaced joke."

CENSUS OF N. Y. STATE IS TAKEN

New York, June 1.—Six thousand enumerators today began a decennial census of the population of New York state under the direction of the secretary of state. It was estimated that the count would show a total of 10,250,000 as compared with 9,113,614 in 1910. The population of New York City was estimated at 5,805,532, as compared with 4,766,883 in 1910. The first census of New York state taken in 1782 showed a population of 238,897.

LISBON IS QUIET

Washington, June 1—Lisbon was reported quiet today by American Minister Birch at Lisbon. He cabled that President Arriagas' resignation was read to a joint session of congress yesterday and accepted, and that Theophile Braga was elected.

As a neutral and disinterested spectator and critic o' th' European war it looks t' me as if th' Italians are advancin' into Austria a bit too rapidly and easily for their own good. If it wasn't an un-neutral act I'd warn 'em t' look out for a trap, but as I said before I'm neutral and if they've a mind t' come on why let 'em come. I'm havin' a fearful time with th' weather: Here it is for tomorrow:

Ohio—Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday. Occasional rains in southwest portions.

Kentucky and West Virginia—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday; probably occasional rains.

EDWARDS CHILDREN HAD NARROW ESCAPE IN FIRE

An electric pad being used to allay the toothache of Lester, ten year old son of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Edwards, 200 Fourteenth avenue, Columbus, O., is believed to have set fire to the bed which he occupied and it was a mass of flames when Mrs. Edwards reached the room, being aroused by a strong odor of smoke that permeated the upstairs rooms. Virginia Edwards, aged 12 was in the same room and had to be carried safely to an adjoining room.

Upon reaching the room Mrs. Edwards was horrified to find the bed a mass of flames and she soon gave an alarm. After the children were rescued the flames were thought to have been extinguished but, shortly after the family retired for the second time, the bed blazed up again. Neighbors this time gave the alarm when they discovered the blaze. The fire communicated to other articles in the room and caused quite a blaze. Dr. and Mrs. Edwards suffered quite a loss before it was put out.

Their son and daughter had a remarkably close call from receiving serious burns.

The Real Suffrage Thought of Women

Motherhood is the thought uppermost in woman's mind. And with it, of course, comes the question of comfort, of helpful aids and influences. Among the best of these is a well known external remedy, "Mother's Friend." It is gently applied to the surface muscles. These are lubricated, toned, made pliable so they stretch as nature requires without the strain and pain on cords and ligaments. This influence extends through the myriad of nerves to deeper surfaces, the internal organs. And thus a period of repose must reflect itself not only in the mind of the mother, but upon the babe to come.

Young mothers who have used "Mother's Friend" have written to say how rejoiced they were at the absence of morning sickness, extreme nervousness, and other distresses of which they had heard and feared. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" at any drug store. Simply apply it over the stomach muscles and rest assured of perfect safety and comfort day and night. Mr. Milstead will advise him at once, and the cannon balls should be here before many days. They will be placed around the Soldiers' monument in Tracy park.

DECORATION DAY IN MEXICO PRE-DATES BEGINNING OF CUSTOM IN U. S.

(Contributed)

There is some controversy in magazines and newspapers as to how, when and where Decoration Day had its origin. The popular opinion is that it was first observed in 1867, and that General John A. Logan was the man who suggested it. This is doubtless true so far is this country is concerned, but the day was observed in poor, despised Mexico decades before the beginning of our Civil War. It was during Mexico's war with the United States, Chapultapec was located in th environs of Mexico City, and was, and still is a military school, virtually the West Point of Mexico, with its corps of cadets, mere boys, of course. When General Scott assaulted Mexico City Chapultepec made a stout resistance, the cadets proving themselves the "bravest of the brave." When the outer works were finally carried the cadets refused to surrendered, and the American volunteers bayoneted the last one of the gallant Mexican boys. A wail of sorrow went up all over Mexico, from mothers, sisters and lovers of the slain cadets. They were buried on the spot where they had fallen, and after the war the women of the better class of Mexico City went out to Chapultepec and strewed flowers on the graves of the boys. From that day to the present they have kept up the beautiful ceremony, on the same day of the year and month. Yes, there are some things that the Anglo Saxon can learn from the latin.

HAS COME EVERY YEAR FOR 30 YEARS TO DECORATE GRAVES

James Dugan, wife and daughters, of Huntington, were in Portsmouth yesterday. Mr. Dugan is the son of the late Thomas Dugan, banker, of the city, and in his day a wonderfully live wire in local affairs. The Dugan home was at Eighth and Chillicothe streets, now occupied by Dr. Schirrmann. James Dugan left Portsmouth thirty years ago, and has never in that time missed coming to Portsmouth on Decoration Day to decorate the graves of his father and mother, and one or two brothers and sisters who died in infancy. "Jimmy" is prosperous and is so big and bewhiskered that his friends don't know him.

The Dugan home was the center of rare hospitality in the days when James was growing up. He quite naturally and creditably thinks Huntington is the greatest town on the map, but his heart turns back to the old town of his childhood and young manhood.

GAIN AT P. O.

Just a year ago this June 1st Vallee Harold took charge of the local office as postmaster. It was a coincidence that he received a letter, this morning, from the postal department informing him that his salary would be the same next year as this, $3,200. This was rather pleasant information, in a way, as owing to a general decline in postoffice receipts the past year, a good many other postmasters will have to see their salaries cut.

As against this the Portsmouth office shows a gain for the postoffice year of close on to $1,000, an exceptional increase.

The Movies

At The Exhibit

The Mill By the Zuyder Dee, a 2-reel Domino, is a feature at the Exhibit today. Ambrose's Little Hatchet is a rip-roaring Keystone comedy.

Tomorrow Renfax Musical Motion pictures will be the main attraction. Alba Daba Honeymoon, a romical monkey song, and Dream of Erin, one of those sweet Irish melodies all love so well, are the numbers.

The Slave Girl is the 3-reel dramatic feature.

At The Columbia Tonight

All roads lead to the Columbia this afternoon and tonight, when Charlie Chaplin, the funniest man in motion pictures, will entertain you in the best picture of his entire career.

It is a two reel picture entitled "The Champion," and the manner in which Charlie disposes of the "White Hope" with a horseshoe in his boxing glove, and assisted by his diminutive bull-dog, will give you the greatest laugh you have enjoyed for some time.

In addition to this special Chaplin picture, Pathe's Weekly will be shown, showing the very latest pictures from the seat of the war in Europe and many other pictures of important current events.

If possible, be sure and see the Chaplin picture today, but if you can't possibly see it today, you will have another opportunity to see it again tomorrow, as Manager Tynes has arranged to show it for two days, because it is without doubt the funniest picture Chaplin has ever appeared in.

Paramount at Lyric Tonight "When We Were 21"

William Elliott, who won a position of supreme importance on the American stage, through his amazing impersonation of the impassioned young attorney in the dramatic sensation, "Madame X," and who is at present distinguishing himself in the stellar role of the current stage success, "Experience," is introduced to the motion picture public through the Famous Players Film company's realistic five-part adaption of the internationally famous drama, "When We Were Twenty-One," at the Lyric tonight on the Paramount program.

Throughout the entire production, the action is charged with true human feeling, and at times the dramatic situations are very intense.

An exceptionally chosen cast supports the star with commendable and uniform skill, conspicuous among whom are Charles Waldron, who himself is co-starring in another contemporary stage success, "Daddy Long-Legs," and who in the film production ably interprets the role of the generous, self-sacrificing bachelor, Dick Carew, a characterization in which comedy and pathos is delicately mingled; his interpretation is artistic, and beyond that, infinitely human. Helen Lutrell as Phyllis finds ample opportunity for the display of her graceful accomplishments. Wm. Elliott himself, as young Richard Andaine, is true to the freshness and immaturity of the rule. He discloses clearly the frankness and cleanheartedness of one who, though engaged in sowing his wild oats, is still a gentleman. Marie Empress as the notorious "Firefly," who temporarily lures Andaine from the path of rectitude, is an alluring adventuress. The ensemble work of the players is smooth and natural—so much so that especial praise is due to the directors, Edwin S. Porter and Hugh Ford.

"When We Were Twenty-One" is human to the core, wholesome and truly enjoyable from beginning to end.

The first show starts at 6:30 then at 8 and 9:30. Admission 10 cents.

The Pastime, Sciotoville

"The Master's Model" is a two reel drama that is being offered as the headliner at the Pastime in Sciotoville tonight. It is a Thanhouser picture and is an exceptionally good one. "The Mansion of Loneliness" is a Beauty comedy drama while "The Echo" is an American one reel drama that goes to complete an exceptionally good program.

Following is the announcement of pictures coming to the Pastime:

Wednesday—"The Mill By the Zuyder Dee," two reel Domino drama; "The Hen's Duckling," Reliance drama; "Ambrose's Little Hatchet," Keystone comedy featuring Charles Chaplin.

Thursday—"The Slave Girl," two reel Reliance drama; "Doggone It," Royal comedy; "The Spirit of Uplift," Thanhouser drama.

Mysterious Drama At Arcana Theatre Tonight

One of the most sensational dramas ever reduced to canvas will be shown at the Arcana theatre tonight. The title of the melodrama is "The Mysterious Contragray," featuring Marie Wallcamp and William Clifford. A battle between two monstrous air crafts will be shown, and all in all this will be one of the most spectacular pictures shown in the city. The 2000 feet of film were made by the Universal people and you know what that means. In addition to the spectacular drama will be shown a Nestor comedy entitled "The Fatal Note." This is guaranteed to be one of the funniest comedies before the people and you will get many a whole hearted laugh. Come tonight—the admission is only five cents and the program worth double the amount.

At The Scenic

The headliner at the Scenic tonight is the Kalem two reel mystery drama "The Stolen Ruby" featuring Harry Hillards, Alice Hollister and Henry Hallam assisted by a great cast of the Kalem players. The third reel is a Biograph drama called "Their Village Friend" with Vivian Prescott, Isabel Rea and Ivan Christy in the leading roles. The fourth reel is an Essanay comedy entitled "The Misjudged Mr. Hartly" which completes a splendid four reel program, one you are sure to like. You should get in the habit of visiting the Scenic nightly as they are showing some mighty good pictures. To-morrow's headliner is the Broadway Star Feature in three parts "The Evil Men Do" featuring Maurice Costello, Thomas R. Mills, Dolores and Helen Costello, Robert Gaillard, Frank Currier and Rex Hitchcock.

5c At Temple Theatre

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Order Railway Conductors will have charge of the Temple theatre tonight and the title of the big feature is "The Undertow," a Thanhouser production wherein Jack, a country boy, falls into evil hands in the city, and becomes identified with a gang of thieves. The third reel is a comedy entitled "Hungry Hank At the Fair." The program is well worth the admission charged, so let's all turn out and help this worthy little organization.

CLAIMS HER HUSBAND EXPECTORATED TOBACCO JUICE ON THEIR FOOD

Expectorating tobacco juice in the dishes containing food at meals and throwing them up against the side of the wall is a favorite pastime of Thomas D. Miller, saloonist at Fifteent and Chillicothe streets, if the allegations of the divorce petition of his wife, Ollie L. Miller, filed in common pleas court this afternoon by Attorneys Blair and Kimble, are true.

Mrs. Miller cites various acts of alleged cruelty, such as personal abuse and assault, and the use of vile and profane epithets directed at her in the presence of her children and neighbors. She especially refers to an alleged assault on the night of May 25th, during which she claims to have suffered serious injuries. She also charges gross neglect of duty.

The couple were married August 2, 1899, and have two children, aged respectively 15 and 13 years. The wife wants divorce, a reasonable alimony, and the custody of the children. Judge Stephenson granted a temporary order restraining Miller from disposing of his property or encumbering it in any way.

BROWNS WON

The newly organized Browns journeyed to Manchester, Sunday, and in a well-played game defeated Manchester 4 to 3, 12 innings. The score stood 3 to 0 in favor of Manchester until the ninth when hits by Rollins, Hart, Dunham, Reider and Crayton tied the score. In the 12th Smith singled and Reider drove him home with the winning run, the hit being a slashing two-bagger. Rollins' pitching was the feature of the game. The box score:

Wallace Drew Wins In Golf Handicap

Wallace Drew won the Decoration Day handicap tournament at the Portsmouth Golf Club grounds by a net score of 65.

The first prize was the choice of wooden clubs. The second prize, one-fourth of a dozen of golf balls, was won by William Briggs. The contest for members of the club term that will play visiting teams and all out-of-town engagements was also decided Monday. James W. Bannon, Jr., William Briggs, Ed Daehler and Wallace Drew made the four best gross scores and thereby qualified for the team. The fifth member remains undecided, Lester Howard, H. T. Hatton, Arthur H. Bannon and Salem Shaw having tied scores. They will play off the tie at some later date.

ATTACKS BARNES-MOORE CIVIL SERVICE MEASURE

Columbus, June 1.—State Civil Service Commissioner Charles H. Bryson today issued a statement attacking the Barnes-Moore civil service bill, passed recently by the general assembly. He declared that even most advocates of the merit system had been fooled by phraseology of the bill, which would allow, in his opinion, the dismissal of 5,000 public officials or employes now in classified service.

Coupled with these was the report that Governor Willis is expected to file charges against Commissioner Bryson soon after his return tomorrow from Washington where he delivered a Memorial Day address yesterday. This anticipated action is a development of Governor Willis' two months ago in asking for the resignation of 14 members of the state commissions and boards including Civil Service Commissioner Bryson, S. A. Hoskins and Chas. J. Brown.

Spoke To Students

O. T. Corson, ex-school commissioner of Ohio, who is to deliver the address at the New Boston school commencement this evening, made a short address to the Portsmouth high school students at noon today. He is a warm friend of Superintendent Frank Appel.

David Desroche, a veteran shoemaker, is repainting his home on Front street, near Bond.

Decision Put Off

In the hope that the husband and wife will come to an amicable agreement and patch up their differences, Judge Stephenson this afternoon again put off the announcement of his decision in the divorce case of Ida Brame against John W. Brame.

The court made it plain that the vital issue in the case is the custody of the child, and he intimated that in any event, he would not give either parent absolute control of the child.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Two marriage licenses were issued on Tuesday afternoon by Judge Beatty as follows:

Robert M. Book, 21, a brickworker of Lewis county, Ky., and Hermona Troutman, 18, a shoeworker of this city. Squire John W. Byron.

Asa Kline Briggs, 21, a farmer of Dry Run, and Edna Myrtle Liston, 20, a school teacher, of Rushtown, Rev. J. E. Gordon.

Will Award Contract

A special meeting of the county commissioners will be held Wednesday or Thursday to re-award the contract for the construction of the concrete bridge at Haverhill. A. E. Miller, the contractor to whom the contract was let a few weeks ago, has decided not to go ahead, and has forfeited the $100 deposited with the county board as security that the work would proceed.

Train Broke Apart

Street car service was delayed twenty-five minutes this afternoon, when an N. & W. freight train broke apart about three o'clock at the Tenth and Offnere streets crossing. The baseball game was not started until 3:30 o'clock on that account.

TURKS LOSE 40,000

London, June 1.—A prisoner captured a fortnight ago in the Dardanelles says the Turkish losses in the defense of their positions on the Gallipoli peninsula were at that time over forty thousand men. This information was given out in an official statement in London today.

Preparing for the Future.

Frank, who had just entered school, came home one day and began fighting his brother, two years younger. His mother protested at such performance, when he turned to her and said: "Mamma, I have to teach him to fight because when he goes to school some day I may not be with him if a fellow hits him, and he must know how to fight."

Wanted It Understood.

With no uncertain tongue the commercial traveler was praising his wares. "They're the finest things out," he assured the manager of the works. "Why, sir, if you have one of our machines it will pay for itself in less than six months." "You guarantee that?" asked the manager, who was tired of his visitor's eloquence. "Certainly," replied the traveler, eagerly. "Then, if they pay for themselves, you can send me half a dozen," bargained the manager. "But if they don't I can't pay for 'em."

He Knew That Story.

The old soldier was again giving the youngsters accounts of the wonders he had experienced, especially in the way of climate. Said he: "I remember when we were in Fyzardum we used to toast our bread in the sun, and—" Youngster (interrupting): "Yes, I know; and you were supplied with corkscrews to draw your breath!"

FUN RAYS

By Ray I. Hoppman

THE LETTER CARRIER.

THE folks are always looking for the man who brings the mail. They like to get a letter and absorb its little tale. He travels many miles with a heavy laden pack. Since parcel post came into vogue he nearly breaks his back. He always looks quite natty in his uniform of gray, and nibbles on along his route with spirits glad and gay. He brings unto the blushing maid a ribboned billet-doux and to the house next door he brings a gravy dish or two. Oh! lots of things he carries that are sent by parcel post. He tugs the load in summer when it's hot enough to roast. In winter time he has to brave the blinding snow and sleet. He has to plug his weary way regardless of wet feet. Sometimes he brings a hapless soul a staggering, big bill. He gets a glance of anger that is fierce enough to kill. But when he brings a mortal say a joy arousing check, they slap him on his collar bone and say "You're there, by heck!" When strangers want to find a street they seek the man in gray. An "information bureau" he, who sends them on their way. He has to figure out the scrawls that look like spattered ink. He sure deserves his money for his services, I think. Examinations must he pass to get a weary route, to wear a uniform of gray and toot a little flute. The man who hands the letters to the mister and the "man" is a faithful, honest servant of our good old Uncle Sam.

RAY I. HOPPMAN.

Father Is Dead

Joseph Brown of Gallia street, has received a letter telling him of the death of his father, Lorinez Brown, who died April 29 after a long illness of stomach trouble. The deceased died at the home of a brother-in-law in Nagy-varad, Hungaria. He had made his home with his brother-in-law for the past four years or since his wife died. He was a retired business man, 76 years of age. The letter stated that a telegram had been sent shortly after death. The telegram must have been held up as it was never received. The deceased leaves a son and daughter in the old country and Mr. Brown in this city.

Mrs. Ersel Greene

Mrs. Ersel Greene, aged 23 years, wife of Samuel L. Greene, an N. & W. round house employee of No. 2046 Gallia street, died very suddenly and under most pathetic circumstances at Hempstead hospital shortly after midnight, giving her life for her new born baby boy.

Mrs. Greene gave birth to a boy Monday noon and immediately developed convulsions from which she never rallied. She was rushed to the hospital in Lynn's ambulance after nine o'clock Monday night and at exactly 11:45 o'clock she breathed her last. The child, which was her first born, is still living and reported thriving nicely.

Mrs. Greene was a member of the Methodist church of Ashland and a young woman of most pleasing disposition. Her untimely and unusually sad death has filled her numerous friends with deepest sorrow.

The remains will be taken to Ashland Wednesday morning at six o'clock and will be buried in a cemetery near the family home at Summit Station on Thursday.

Dunning, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. On Wednesday the body will be shipped to Manchester, where the interment will be made.

RICHMOND ENTERTAINS "OLD BOYS" IN GRAY

Richmond, Va., June 1.—Richmond today welcomed the survivors of the Confederacy, opening the gates of the old capitol to the United Confederate Veterans in their 25th annual reunion. Thousands of wearers of the gray were welcomed on behalf of the state by Governor Stuart and for Richmond by Mayor George Ainslie.

The ceremonies which will reach a climax Thursday with the laying of a cornerstone of a monument to General Stonewall Jackson was opened by an address by General Thompson Brown, commanding the Virginia division. Judge D. G. Tyler also addressed them on behalf of the Virginians after which the convention was turned over to General George P. Harrison, of Alabama, designated to preside by Commander-in-Chief Bennet H. Young, who was detained by illness.

Commander Young's prepared address was read by Judge Geo. L. Christian of Richmond. Resolutions of sympathy for Commander Young were prepared for adoption following the presentation of his remarks.

FINDING THEIR PLACE.

Data gathered by Farm Life, one of the most progressive agricultural papers in the land, from all over the country, but more particularly in Indiana, show that twice as many automobiles are being sold this year as last.

While these figures appear abnormal it is more than likely they are within the actual figures rather than beyond them. Locally, the sales agents can vouch for their reasonable sales and the same story comes from every point.

But the most significant condition the inquiries of Farm Life reveal is that seventy-five per cent of the machines sold are going to farmers. This, however, is not peculiar, it is but the working out of the natural and inevitable, coming a little more rapidly than could have been anticipated from two causes, the lowering of prices and the general advent of farm prosperity, through high prices for products and bountiful crops. The popularity, the general acceptance of the automobile in the country is inevitable because its modern progress and necessities are making it more valuable, almost indispensible, because of its wider and quicker adaptation to farm uses. Help is scarcer, the farmer does not work the long hours he used to and time saving is a value that he is rapidly learning appreciation of.

But there is another consideration for which the automobile becomes the most valuable adjunct to the farm. It is going to become a most potent factor in keeping the boys and girls at home. It will destroy much of the loneliness and monotony of rural life, it will not only furnish diversion to the youth, but it will bring that restfulness of change and fast motion that is the best recreation the whole family can have.

A WRONGFUL LESSON.

The Bluefield Telegraph is much moved by the numberless stories borne in the daily news columns and the accounts of special writers of the terrible days that have fallen upon Belgium. It is with the greatest concern it contemplates the havoc wrought in that devoted land and fully well it understands how the great heart of the world has gone out to its people in the sorrow and desolation amidst which they sit, but, as it sees it, no darker history was ever written than that in the frightful atrocities wrought by Belgium upon the natives of the Congo, a dark and bloody record that has been torn from the memory of men, so to speak. And for this Belgium is now paying more than thrice fold, the measure of retribution.

That is a most impressive lesson to draw and may be a moral set for the wholesome instruction of the natives. The only weakness in it is the facts do not warrant the illustration, to say naught of its conclusions, and then it isn't fair. Grosser libel was never put upon a people than the tales of the shocking outrages in darkest Africa. They were born in greed and a devilish purpose and were tossed aside when they no longer served a purpose, and so are rightly forgotten, or should be. The lesson isn't fair because it makes the least guilty suffer the most. Belgium was never a nation to rob, to oppress and to persecute, her ways have ever been the ways of peace and gentleness. So is it with France. There are no dark tales of wrong and blood in her conquests and dominions; alien lands and ignorant races she has ruled in kindness and justice, in so far as human imperfections allow, but 'tis weak, tiny Belgium and France that bear the brunt of the terrors and horrors of battle, while their allies, who have sinned a thousand times worse and oftener, know comparatively little of war's ravages.

One thing war has brought us to be proud of, and that is a home grown flag. Few people know that flags, the kind the government uses, are made of imported wool. The treasury department has been experimenting in a new production and finds that, undergoing certain processes, home grown cotton will make just as serviceable an article.

It is first one thing and then another. No sooner do we get the scourge of the legislature off our hands than we learn the seventeen year locusts are headed this way.

In the opinion of the adoring New York Mail, Teddy is not a come back. He always arrived and always will be.

KNEE DEEP IN JUNE, 1915

MAY BE ONLY A MOOD.

A contemporary says the agitation for purer milk, more sunshine, more play grounds, for training of mothers in hygiene, for prevention of contagious disease and so forth and et cetera, proves how the great world is moving onward and upward. May be so, sonny, may be so; but in our dark moods we are haunted with a suspicion that if some people were only half as busy agitating and helping in the pandemonium, but twice as busy doing something for themselves it would be a better and a happier world than they are ever going to make it.

Take every big thing you hear with a grain of salt. We were told Italy demands Trieste because all Trieste wanted to come back home. Today we are reading cablegrams telling how the populace of Trieste is raising up and smashing everything Italian.

There is considerable glib talk about treason to this country, these days. As this country is not at war with any other government, treason to it right now is a practical impossibility. A citizen can scarce commit treason with his tongue in time of peace.

A lot of policemen and detectives, assembled at Cincinnati, last week, formed an association for the suppression of crime. And here we absurd taxpayers have been assuming all the time that was what we paid 'em for.

Never laugh at your fellow man's effeminacy—you don't know how it may recoil on you. Great Britain is buying hundreds of thousands of wrist watches for her soldiers.

Over in New York some fellows are bellowing hard times too and thirty-six thousand more other fellows are running automobiles this year than last.

So far we have been able to keep cool, thank you. What we would like though to experience once more is just a touch of high temperature.

Since the verdict is in, our namesake of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, has some doubts as to whether Teddy will run for president again or go into vaudeville.

If the police have run down the slayers of Officer Baiens there can be no denial it is a considerable feather in their cap.

The chief of police of Chicago says there is no politics in his department. May be he believes that, nobody else does.

A most marvelous thing. It didn't rain Sunday! But it did threaten to all day.

'Specially Jim.

The likeliest one of 'em all was he,
Chipper an' han'som' an' trim,
But I tossed up my head an' made fun o' the crowd,
'Specially Jim.

I said I hadn't no 'pinion o' men,
An' I wouldn't take stock in him,
But they kep' on a-comin' in spite o' my talk
'Specially Jim!

I got so tired o' havin' 'em round,
'Specially Jim.
I made up my mind I'd settle down
An' take up with him.

So we was married on Sunday in church,
'Twus crowded full to the brim,
'Twas the only way to get rid of 'em all—
'Specially Jim.

Her Waist Measure

A teacher in one of the city schools—who, to say the least, is of rather generous proportions—was trying to explain to her scholars the correct measurements of the human frame.

"For example", she said, "twice around my thumb, once around my wrist; twice around my wrist, once around my neck; twice around my neck, once around my waist." Then she paused, and a shrill voice from the back of the room exclaimed, "twice around your waist, once around the city hall."—Youngstown (O.) Telegram.

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief from Head-Colds. It's Splendid!

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.

Progress On The C. & O. Bridge Piers

With the completion of another small pier on this side of the river the Dravo Contracting Company will complete the pier work on the Ohio side of the river. The Dravo Company is doing the substructure work on the new C. & O. Northern bridge which is to span the Ohio river above Sciotoville.

Eight small piers between the large Ohio river bank pier and the hill abutment have been completed and excavation for the base of the ninth has been started. The middle river pier was completed several days ago. Several wooden forms remain to be taken from the only middle river pier.

The large number of people who visited the bridge site Sunday were greatly impressed with the construction of the hill abutment. It is one of the finest pieces of masonry of the kind ever seen in this part of the country. Many compliments are passed on the large finished concrete abutment and piers.

Work on the Kentucky shore and through Kentucky bottom land is moving along nicely. Excavation for piers has been started and concrete will soon be poured for piers on that side of the river. Sand tipple, concrete mixer, derricks and whirlers are working on the other side of the river like they were on this side when the work was fairly underway.

Genuine sympathy goes far to lighten the burdens of sorrow.

"Sincerely,

Joe Turner returns to the main line from Sciotoville. Wiley Tipton takes a main line run instead of the Hilltop.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder disease.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, June 1—Wall street's point of view regarding Germany's reply to this government was reflected in a number of sharp recessions on the resumption of operations today. Losses ran from one to three points, war specialties naturally scoring greatest declines, but standard railways fell 1 to 1½ points. All the trading was in moderate amounts, with no indication of urgent liquidation. There were fractional rallies after the first decline, but these were succeeded by another setback, after which trading became dull.

Trading in the first hour barely totalled 100,000 shares and in the second hour the market came to a complete standstill. Some of the war shares like Westinghouse and Crucible steel recovered half of their loss but the movement as a whole was entirely without significance, except in the case of Missouri Pacific which steadied further in expectation of the success of the extension plan. So indifferent was the list to routing news that New Haven on a single sale, failed to show any change from last week's final quotation, despite action adverse to the company by the governor of Massachusetts. Bonds were steady.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, June 1—Favorable weather and lower cables tended to bring about weakness today in the wheat market here. The conditions were such that harvesting was reported to be general throughout North Texas with prospects that cutting would begin in Central Oklahoma within a week. There were also advices that wheat from India was being pressed for sale at Liverpool. Prices here after opening 1 to 2⅜ cents lower steadied at a moderate rally.

Corn sagged with wheat. Improved crop reports also counted against the bulls. The opening which ranged from ¼ and⅜ to ½ and ⅝ lower was followed by additional downturn.

Traders in oats showed a disposition to be guided by the action of other grains. Business was of a fair volume. Lack of demand resulted in a downward slant for provisions. Pork led the decline.

Pronounced weakness in wheat later developed later owing to estimates of 50,000 bushels yield than indicated at this time a year ago. The close was steady at 3¼ to 4⅝ under Saturday night's level.

Values in corn continued to drop, influenced somewhat by increased country offerings. The close was steady at ⅞ and 1 to 1¼ not net decline.

Beal Election At Beaver June 10

Thursday, June 10, has been set aside as the date of a Beal election in Beaver, Pike county, which place recently became wet territory under the Home Rule amendment. A license was recently granted to Louis Schrader, and he opened up his place over a week ago. Beaver is about half way between Jackson and Waverly, two wet towns, and considerable enthusiasm has developed among the wet and dry factions.

Thousands Rode On Street Cars Monday

Monday was one of the biggest days on record with the street railway and light company as between 23,000 and 24,000 fares were collected on all lines, according to Traffic Manager Hugh H. Higgins. All park bound cars were packed to the running boards all day Monday.

"The exceptionally heavy traffic was handled admirably by our men as not a single accident was reported to the office," said Mr. Higgins, Tuesday, in commenting on the enormous traffic handled on all lines Monday.

Granted Right To Exchange Property

One of the last acts of Judge Thomas Tuesday morning before leaving for the Panama Exposition was to grant the application of the trustees of the Free Will Baptist church of Madison township to exchange the balance of the church property to Thomas F. Kent for a tract of land belonging to him.

The trustees were recently authorized by the court to sell a portion of the property to the C. & O. Northern Railway company for right-of-way purposes and the remaining portion 7-10 of an acre, was thought to be too near to the railroad line to be of use for church purposes. Attorney William J. Meyer represented the trustees.

Can You Succeed On a Salary?

It will take more than your salary, however, large, to insure your financial success for the simple reason that, as an almost invariable rule, the scale of living a person maintains is in direct proportion to his income.

Earn much, spend much is the way it goes. In order to get ahead EVERYBODY must save a porton of his income. There's no getting around this fact, and a strong bank like the Central National is the logical place for you to build up your reserve fund.

Y. W. C. A. A POWER FOR GOOD IN THE PEERLESS

As the first three years of the existence of the local Y. W. C. A. nears a close, the potent influence for good wielded by that association among the young girls of this city becomes more apparent to local observers.

Scores of young girls who have come to this city from the farms and smaller villages and even the larger towns have found in the Y. W. C. A. a welcome haven, where the loneliness which always follows in strange surroundings soon lost itself in the association with the happy family of girls who make the Y. W. C. A. building their home.

Every avenue of girlish activity offered itself to them from the time they took up their residence there. Practical lessons in sewing, cooking, tailoring, millinery and the domestic arts were open to them, and many availed themselves of the opportunity to improve themselves in these arts during the winter months.

Athletics were encouraged, a well equipped gymnasium hall being at their disposal. Interest in athletics was heightened by numerous contests and games with teams of other cities, which aided materially in promoting a true Y. W. C. A. spirit among the members.

The social life of the institution appeals strongly to the resident members. In addition to the little informal affairs arranged at the building, picnic parties and country hikes bring the girls to a closer relation with each other.

A religious influence is exerted over the members which takes the place of that in the home, through bible study and the vesper services.

The association, founded for a lofty purpose, is making itself felt in the movement for religious and moral betterment in the community, and deserves loyal encouragement.

ATE ONLY RAW EGGS: NOW FEELING FINE

S. D. Martin, of Elkton, O., suffered with stomach troubles and difficulties in his digestive tract. He lost weight and his appetite was bad.

He took one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and was swiftly restored—with one dose. Seven months later he sent an order for more, saying:

"Since taking your remedy I have not been bothered any to speak of with my stomach. Before I had bad headaches and dizzy, weak spells, of which I am almost free. I have gained fifteen pounds since taking the one dose. It is not that I need the medicine now that I am sending. I am simply going to take it as a preventive. My wife induced a lady friend to try it. She had been eating only a raw egg or cracker or two, and often could not keep them down. This lady used your remedy and it has almost cured her."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

ITALIANS TAKE 37 VILLAGES

were dropped from hostile air craft in various localities not far distant from each other. A number of fires of which only three were large enough to require the services of the fire engines broke out. All of them were promptly and effectively dealt with and only one of them necessitated a district call. The fires were caused by the incendiary bombs referred to.

No public building was injured but a number of private buildings were damaged by water. The number of casualties is small so far as has at present been ascertained.

A few other private citizens were seriously injured but the precise number has not been ascertained. Adequate police arrangements, including the calling out of special constables, enabled the situation to be kept thoroughly in hand at all times.

Rome, May 31—(Via Paris, June 1)—The following statement of the Italian military forces was issued tonight by General Cadorna, chief of the general staff:

"The advance of our troops beyond the Tyrol-Trentino frontier continues and we have occupied the important heights of Zugna, about four miles north of Ala, which dominate Rovereto. Upon these heights the Austrians some time ago ordered the fortress built.

"Our artillery fire on the plateau being followed up, the fire of the Austrian fortification Belridere diminished in intensity and our infantry is solidly established upon the field.

"Our front advancing in Val Sugana has arrived within five miles of Bergo and is supported strongly on two slopes of the valley. The mountain of Belvedere, which dominates Fiera di Primimera in the Cismon valley, is also in our hands.

"A battalion and a half of Austrians with machine guns attacked our Alpine troops in a defile of Monte Croce, on the Carina frontier May 30. The Alpine troops repulsed fire spirited attacks delivered one after the other, after which they took the offensive in a violent rain and thick fog putting their assailants to flight. Our losses were light.

"The rain continues on the Friuli frontier and the water courses are swollen, but our troops advance."

SERBIAN REPORT

Nish, Serbia, June 1—(Via London)—The resumption of military activity on the part of Serbia against Austria is indicated in an official announcement issued today. In this report the military authorities claim a successful artillery engagement as a result of which a battalion of Austrians, which was fortifying itself to the northeast, was dispersed.

Considerable military activity on the part of the Serbians has been noted also on the Albanian frontier.

Several months have passed since Serbia has been actively engaged in important military operations against Austria-Hungary. It was in December that the last heavy fighting was reported. Recent dispatches have indicated that a new Serbian army was being organized and that a resumption of hostilities might be expected. On the other hand Austria also has been making preparations and a dispatch early in May said a new army was getting ready to take the field against Serbia. It has predicted that Serbia would strike again as soon as Austria was well occupied with the situation on her Italian frontier.

PRESIDENT TO DEMAND AN ANSWER

be impressed upon the ambassador and might have some influence in Berlin on the reception of the forthcoming communication.

President Wilson told callers today he did not feel it would be wise for him to discuss Germany's reply to the American note until after he had consulted his cabinet and studied further the important questions involved.

The president said the American rejoinder, however, would not be many days delayed. He spoke of having studied the official text last night.

Calm in his bearing, and showing none of the strain of the international problems before him, the president received the Washington correspondents as is his usual custom on Tuesdays. Questions concerning domestic affairs had hardly touched the edge of his mind, as he phrased it, because of the greater importance of the international situation.

Tomorrow Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, at his own request will see the president. In well informed quarters, however, it is said he is not in close touch with his government because of difficulty in communication.

The outward calm in executive quarters, however, emphasized the deep concentration and earnest attention which President Wilson and his advisers are giving to the situation. The president, it is understood, has been much impressed with the particularly unanimous verdict of the American editorial opinion that the German answer is not really an answer but an evasion of the greater issues of law and humanity. His close advisers say he regards it as a true reflection of the opinion of the country and will endeavor by his action to express it.

While the president himself would give no intimation of his course many of those familiar with his previous attitude thought the American rejoinder would be brief and would demand an early reply.

Failure to meet the American representations, would, it was said, result in a severance of diplomatic relations. The pressure for that course has been great in many quarters since the sinking of the Lusitania.

Some friends of the president have indicated that he would not hesitate to adopt it in the event of a final unsatisfactory answer. Diplomatic non-intercourse, however, would not necessarily be followed, it was pointed out today by any other step unless American rights were again flagrantly violated.

BAUCUS KILLED BECAUSE SLAYER DID NOT WANT TO BE PUT ON STREET WORK GANG

Confession Made By Second Negro In Murder Gang

BULLETIN

"High Yaller" the alleged gun man in the Baucus murder case, had not yet been apprehended up to 3:30 Tuesday afternoon but a determined effort will be made, the police say, to capture him within the next few days.

That James A. Baucus, the N. & W. detective and former police chief, was murdered because the gun-user feared his arrest meant he would be returned to the city prison street work gang on which he had once before served, was brought out when the confession of William Jones, alias "Jungle Shine" was reviewed and reduced to writing Tuesday noon.

The confession, which now only awaits typing and Jones' signature, to warrant its preservation as evidence, was a remarkable story of the dastardly crime that was committed in the N. & W. yards Sunday night, December 6, 1914.

Jones said he know of no real reason why Henry Glen, alias "High Yaller" should want to take Baucus' life other than that he had a strong dislike for working on the streets and felt sure that such was in store for him unless he succeeded in escaping. He said it was next to impossible for him to run away for Baucus was walking directly behind him with his big gun swinging from his hand and at no time did he conceal the gun in his overcoat pocket.

Said Baucus Was After Him

He said "High Yaller" had never complained to him that Baucus was constantly on his trail—a statement "Florida Kid" made in his confession—and that weeks after the crime when referring to the shooting he expressed remorse for his act saying: "That's one thing I did in my life that I hate." Jones said he himself in reply told him that it was the one thing he knew in his (High Yaller's) life that he hated too.

He said that Baucus was not killed because of any particular grievance that "High Yaller" had against him but simply that any other officer would have suffered the same fate had he been in Baucus' place at the time.

Jones said that "High Yaller" himself was the first one to speak of the crime to an outsider he telling a friend known as "Big Sam" in Cincinnati some weeks ago. He said he warned him (Jones) against ever telling declaring that he would in that event have a right to kill him and that he (Jones) would have the same right were he (High Yaller) to tell.

Tells About Meeting "Yaller"

Jones said he had met "High Yaller" and "Florida Kid" at Ironton. They caught a westbound freight train. It was going so fast that he himself failed to catch it but caught another later train. He saw them at Haverhill. They motioned to him to get off but the train did not stop and he came on to Portsmouth. Later he caught an eastbound train hoping to meet them. He caught sight of them on a passing train. He alighted and walked back to near the Terminals. He found them around a bon-fire in a trench. They later repaired to a caboose for the night. "High Yaller" was standing up when Baucus came in. He threw his jacket up into a bunk. The gun was inside the jacket sleeve but Baucus did not notice it. He searched him and then searched them. Baucus held his flashlight in his left hand and his gun under his left arm while he searched them with his right hand. When they started to leave "High Yaller" put the jacket under his arm. While going down the tracks he stooped once to lace his shoes. He rolled a cigarette with the makings "Florida Kid" gave him. He asked Baucus for a match but he said he had none. Later he asked him again but Baucus told him to get one from the switchman at the Kendall avenue watch house.

Heard Report and Saw Baucus Fall

Then suddenly there was a report of a pistol. He saw Baucus fall and heard his groaning. "High Yaller" was going through his pockets. Baucus' gun had dropped at his side and "High Yaller" told him (Jones) to pick it up which he did, he then running around in a circle and bolting to the river. He saw "Florida Kid" start back up the yards while "High Yaller" was still bent over Baucus when he himself hurried away. He said he remained on the river bank for a couple of hours then took north to the hills. It was then he heard the incessant barking of dogs but said he did not know they were blood hounds. He caught a freight train at Vera, going to Waverly thence to Chillicothe and later to Columbus, returning a day later to Chillicothe where soon after he met "Florida Kid." He said he met up with a colored policeman and was drinking quite freely with him when "Florida Kid" took him away warning him that he might get drunk and tell all and that the policeman was perhaps purposely throwing drinks into him. They then went to the cars together. "Florida Kid" wanted him to go to Columbus to take a job but instead he went to West Virginia returning later to Cincinnati.

Tells About Pawning Gun.

Jones said he full well realized how dangerous it was for him to be toting Baucus' gun but that he didn't know what to do with it. He afterwards got a boy named Irwin to pawn it for him for $4 and it is now in some pawnshop on Sixth street or Central avenue, Cincinnati. The gun with which Baucus was killed was sold by "High Yaller" to "Big Sam."

The nerve of Jones was equalled by "Florida Kid" according to the confession. Jones said that "Florida Kid" also had a gun and left it in the caboose when Baucus started away with them. After the shooting, so "Florida Kid" later told him, he hurried back to the caboose, got the gun and a bottle of cocaine and concealed them under a pile of scrap iron at the Terminals. He then went on to Ironton where he was arrested. After his release he came back and got the gun and cocaine.

Jones said it was a month after the murder that he first met "High Yaller." He said he asked him if he had told anyone. He himself spoke of how he escaped. He said he found Baucus had no money. He ran to the river and ferried himself across in a boat. He caught a freight train and went to Vanceburg, Ky., later going to Cincinnati. He later was sent to the workhouse for fifteen days for fighting. He himself had had trouble and rather than be caught with a gun on him decided to part with Baucus' pistol.

Does Not Know Of Other Murders

Jones when asked if he thought "High Yaller" may have had any connection with the killing of other railroad detectives at the time of the Baucus murder said he could not say and that "High Yaller" had never spoken to him about them. He said "High Yaller" never traveled far from Cincinnati and when he last heard from him was several weeks ago when he included him among a number of post cards mailed from Huntington, W. Va. He said that two weeks ago a woman known as Alma, of 318 Front street, Cincinnati, who is "High Yaller's sweetheart, received a letter from him. He was then in Catlettsburg Ky.

Asked why he was so free to discuss the crime now Jones said that all three felt they had better not tell, that "High Yaller" had assured him that he wasn't so certain about "Florida Kid" but had perfect confidence in him and now that he was under arrest he felt he had everything to gain and nothing to lose by making a clean breast of it. Jones said he was married and lived in Cincinnati.

It was impressed upon Jones that if there was anyone in the universe who should be interested in the capture of "High Yaller" it must certainly be him and "Florida Kid" and that they should do everything in their power to aid the officials in locating him. This he agreed to do.

Gun Man Is Missing

While investigating clues at both Columbus and Cincinnati, the officials are inclined to believe that "High Yaller is in some labor construction camp along the line of the N. & W. railway in West Virginia and these will be thoroughly secured in search of him.

Detective Hardman reported to the police Monday that he had made a thorough search of the Columbus workhouse for Glenn, but at the time was under the impression that he was light-skinned because of the nickname he bears. He was told that Glenn is very dark. Another visit will be made to the institution, it having been reported that Glenn was recently sent to that place to serve a sentence. Officer Charles Flowers, who is well acquainted with Glenn, will accompany Detective Hartman on his next visit.

A local colored citizen reported to the police that he had seen "High Yaller" in Cincinnati last Friday afternoon. Bob Reno, the local N. & W. detective, brushed directly by him. Reno, of course, did not know the man, and the colored citizen was unaware at the time that "High Yaller" was wanted.

Satisfied that they have positive evidence of the commission of the crime that resulted in the murder, the police officials Tuesday morning addressed an appeal to Judge James S. Thomas for the release of Kendall Fields, John Anderson and Oswell Pennington, the former suspects, just a little earlier, than if they had not at one time been accused of the crime. The men were convicted of chicken stealing. Fields is in the Mansfield reformatory and the other two in the Cincinnati workhouse.

Shows Germany's Profits So Far In European War

Berlin, June 1—Professor Penck, the head of the Royal Geographical Society, has struck a balance sheet of profits and losses in the war so far and finds the profits of Germany outweigh her losses to the allies. His balance sheet takes in events only to April 1, so that with the Austro-German victory in Galicia and the invasion of the Russian Baltic provinces German claims to a "profit" in the war now are even better founded. Professor Penck's account reads roughly as follows:

PROFIT

Territory conquered in Belgium and France (square miles)	19,250
Population thereof	10,000,000
(Conquered districts include the most important iron and coal mines and industrial sections of our enemies' territory.)
Territory conquered in Russia (square miles)	24,100
Population thereof	6,000,000
Minimum losses of our foes in the west (eight months)	1,500,000
Minimum losses of our foes in Russia	3,400,000
Total, roundly	5,000,000
Constant average monthly loss of all our foes	600,000

German fleet still undestroyed. England's "starvation plan" collapsed. Unity of German nation in arms and realization that it is fighting "for great ideals of humanity."

LOSS

Hostility of neutral countries, due to German violation of Belgian neutrality.

German territory occupied by foe (square miles)	308
Austrian territory occupied by foe (square miles)	21,175
Population thereof	6,000,000

Our colonies and expert trade.

Professor Penck says Germany is justified in expecting that "in a few months France will have bled to death and Russia been militarily exhausted."

SUTTON DIVORCE CASE IS ON AGAIN

The case of James B. Sutton against Mary A. Sutton, divorce and alimony, which has been heard once before in the common pleas court and court of appeals, was re-opened in common pleas court Tuesday morning before Judge Stephenson. The plaintiff, who is past 72 years of age, alleges extreme cruelty and neglect of duty.

Mrs. Sutton, in an answer filed several days ago, entered a general denial to the suit, and is bitterly contesting it in court. The attorneys are Milner, Miller and Searl, of this city, and A. R. Johnson of Ironton for the plaintiff and Bannon and Bannon for the defendant.

A large array of witnesses were subpoenaed by each side, and they were still being examined at press time, with indications that the case will not be concluded at the evening adjournment. The Suttons reside on Eighth street, this city.

Portsmouth Girls In Beauty Contest

Portsmouth beauties apparently have made a hit with the state committee which has charge of the selection of photographs which will be shown in connection with the state beauty contest now being staged by the American Art Film Co., of Columbus. Five photographs from this city were chosen during the first day's work of the committee and they have hardly started.

The five Portsmouth girls who, it is already decided, will appear on the films among the state contestants are Ida Mae Beasley, 1111 Gallia; Georgia Jacobs, 1613 Eleventh; Alma Davis, 1124 Monroe; Sue Bevis, 1018 Eighteenth, and Marie Hartley.

Pictures of the state contestants will be shown twice a week in reels of fifty on the screen at the Columbia theatre. Patrons will be given a chance to vote for their favorites.

The fifty highest will be brought to Columbus at the expense of the film company and filmed in action, just like regular movie stars, and that reel released. The six highest will be given a month's tour of the scenic beauties of the west, including the national parks and the two expositions. Entries for the contest will close on June 15.

Melvin Funk Is Foreman Of Jury

Promptly at one o'clock this afternoon the grand jury for the April term of court was impaneled in common pleas court, Judge Stephenson of Adams county presiding. Judge Stephenson's charge made a splendid impression upon the jury, court officials, and spectators, sustaining the excellent impression he has made in the local courts since being elevated to the bench.

Nothing out of the ordinary was included in the charge of the court, and the grand jury investigation, which is expected to last two or three days, will be confined largely to the cases that have been transcribed from the lower courts, it is thought. About thirty such cases are to be investigated and over one hundred witnesses have been subpoenaed.

After receiving the charge of the court and the usual instructions the grand jury went into secret session in the jury room with the prosecuting attorney, Joseph Micklethwait, and the examination of witnesses was started.

Melvin E. Funk, of this city, was made foreman of the jury which includes: George P. Bryant of Harden; L. C. Peel, city; John P. Bradbury, Harden; Ernest Veneer, Bloom; George Walsh, Otway; Truman Newman, Harden; Ira Fenner, New Boston; Harrison White, Brush Creek; J. B. Haney, Harrison; John Voss, New Boston; Grant Hannahs, city; David Stewart, city; William Scott, city; Ben Grimes, city. The last three named were talesmen, taking the places of William Fullerton, of Madison, Adolph Brunner, city, and Notley Mustard, Harden. Fullerton and Brunner were excused from service, and Mustard could not be located.

Auto And Buggy Crash

C. E. Price, of a West Virginia furniture firm of Huntington, formerly of Wellston, while driving past Otha Appleton's store on the West Side in his automobile, collided with a buggy occupied by Mrs. James Blanton, of Dry Run. She and the mule she was driving were knocked over into a ditch and the buggy was demolished. The police officials were asked to apprehend the automobile owner, who after waiting for some time for the woman to appear, left a ten dollar bill in settlement of damages. Mrs. Blanton, it was reported, escaped with bruises and a severe shaking up.

★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★
★ ACID STOMACHS ★
★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★

"Acid" stomachs are dangerous because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach, and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the source of the trouble, the acid in the stomach, as dangerous as ever. The acid must be neutralized, and its formation prevented, and the best thing for this purpose is a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, a simple antacid, taken in a little warm or cold water after eating, which not only neutralizes the acid, but also prevents the fermentation from which acid is developed. Foods which ordinarily cause distress may be eaten with impunity if the meal is followed with a little bisurated magnesia, which can be obtained from the Fisher & Streich pharmacy, and should always be kept handy.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60, Residence A-696.

Miss Dolly Wise.—We are two girls 18 and 20 years old and would like to go with a moving picture company. Now dear Dolly can you tell us how we can get in with one and do you know how much they pay per week for a new beginner? I have had some experience with a stock company. Please give us full information. WANT TO BE MOVIE ACTRESS.

To satisfy yourselves that there is no chance for inexperienced girls in the movie world you might send in your application to the different film companies. Also enclose your photograph and tell why you think you would make a successful movie star.

Dear Dolly.—There is a young man in our town whom I have gone with for a long time and I think a great deal of him. But he takes spells of getting mad at me for a while and goes with another girl. After two or three times he quits her and doesn't go with any one. He sits around as if his heart were broken, and then if I start going around with another fellow it seems as if it will kill him. Then right away he wants to come back to me. He says that he really does care for me. Do you really think he does? His folks think a great deal of me. What can I do with that kind of a fellow? Shall I make up with him or shall I go with other fellows when I don't care for them? W. K.

The boy is probably sulky and jealous. The sooner you drop him the better for your happiness.

Dear Dolly.—Please tell me how to write out a not in acknowledgement of a wedding gift. MRS. NEWLYWED.

THANK YOU

If you have favored us today with your patronage, we appreciate it and hope to keep it.

If for any reason you feel disappointed with your purchase, please return it and we will exchange it or refund your money.

Dear Dolly.—I am 17 years old and I have a decided bump at the joint of the big toe. I think it is a bunion. My mother has them, but she said that I ought not to be troubled with them. Can I do anything for this trouble? MINNIE.

You are too young to be bothered with this, but I am afraid that your description suggests that your trouble is a bunion. Perhaps you have been wearing the wrong size and shape in shoes.

Bunions and corns are due to improperly fitting shoes. Have the shoes and stockings a trifle too long for the feet, so as to relieve the pressure on the toes. Soak and rub with a mixture of (equal parts) or turpentine and swet oil (1 to 3 parts) until the soreness subsides. Dust between the toes with talcum powder and place a little cotton between the toes, so as to absorb any moisture. The following remedy will cure a bunion. Carbolic acid, 2 fluid drams; tincture of iodine, 2 fluid drams; glycerin, 2 fluid drams. Apply with a camel's hair brush daily.

Dear Dolly.—What kind of a costume should a bride wear when she is married at home with no one present but the immediate family? BRIDE-TO-BE.

Wear a simple white gown or a traveling suit.

Dear Dolly.—Please give me a recipe for a strawberry short cake. YOUNG COOK.

3 cups of flour, 3-4 cups of shortening, one teaspoon of soda and one of cream of tartar, or 3 of baking powder; small teaspoon of salt; stir with water to right consistency and press out with your hands into a cake. Don't handle any more than necessary. Bake in pie pans. Sweeten berries and put between layers and on top of cake.

Dear Dolly.—I have been going with a man off and on all winter. A short time ago he got a job in another city and ask me to write to him. I wrote and he answered it, but has never written me since, although he owes me two letters. Should I write him again or drop him? I hate to lose him, yet I could get lots of other fellows. CLARA.

Drop him and let the other boys call. Another letter would not bring him back; it would only make him think the less of you. A man who has proved to be so poor a friend would make a miserable husband. One of the boys who wants to call may prove more interesting than you expect. It wouldn't hurt seeing if you like them.

To Become Plump, Popular and Attractive

Thin people who have had to stand ridicule from their friends because they were a bit below normal weight know only too well how humiliating it is to possess a figure that requires padding out in order to make a good appearance.

Thinness is not always a sign of dissipation, yet people often look with suspicion upon a person who looks run-down or under weight.

Most thin people, however, fully realize that excessive thinness is a detriment to them and lately hundreds have been putting on pound after pound of good healthy flesh by simply drinking plenty of fresh water, avoiding acid foods and by taking a little Vanione after each meal. While Vanione is a new discovery, it seems to be exactly what thin people want—it aids their digestive organs and to extract the fatty elements from their food.

People who have been thin for years and have commenced to think it was natural for them to be this way, have rapidly developed into fine, strong, healthy looking men and women after only a few weeks treatment.

Vanione is not expensive and most every druggist keeps it now in handy tablet form. The dose is one tablet after each meal and one before retiring at night. It is really marvelous how quickly thin people become plump and well developed by its use.

OPEN AIR GAMBLING PARLOR SCENE OF SHOOTING AFFRAY; GAMBLING DEBT THE CAUSE

Less than fifty yards from where a poker game was in full blast, William Ehrheart, an employee of the Carlye Paving Brick company, was shot four times and seriously wounded by Izar Church of New Boston, Decoration Day morning about 11:30 o'clock, the shooting taking place in the hollow north of the Carlyle plant.

Ehrheart was endeavoring to collect a gambling debt of $3 of several months standing when he was fired upon, according to his statement after the shooting. He claims to have loaned Church $3 in a crap game several months ago, which he had failed to pay back to him. He also claims to have been induced to go up into the hollow under the pretense that the debt would be paid.

Church later gave himself up to the authorities and admitted having fired the shots that wounded Ehrheart, but pleaded self-defense. He was lodged in the New Boston jail, and late in the afternoon, was removed to the county jail, where he is still confined.

Victim Reported No Better

No change was noted this afternoon in the condition of William Ehrheart, victim of the shooting near Star Yards Monday morning, who still lies at Hempstead hospital in a semi-paralyzed condition.

The city physician, Dr. C. W. Wendelken and Dr. Joseph F. Fitch went into consultation early this afternoon on the case and decided to take an X-Ray picture of the wounded man's chest to determine whether or not the bullet was causing the paralysis of his lower limbs. If this is found to be the case an operation will be performed in an effort to restore him to normal condition. Dr. Wendelken stated that the X-Ray picture would be taken late this afternoon or Wednesday morning. His condition is causing no immediate concern.

Attorneys Theodore K. Funk and N. B. Gilliland were retained by the gun-user, Izar Church, to defend him, this morning. They were in closed conference with their client at the county jail for about an hour Tuesday morning, going over the case.

Church will not be arraigned for preliminary examination until the extent of Ehrheart's injuries are known.

Shooting Took Place North of Carlyle Plant

The shooting occurred in the hollow about one-sixth of a mile north from the Carlyle plant. No one outside the principles witnessed the shooting, but a dozen or more men were within hearing distance of the shots.

Ehrheart fell in his tracks immediately after the first shot lodged in his body. He claims that Church shot him three times while he was lying on the ground, unable to move.

The first shot took effect in his left side, just above the hip, and is the only serious wound. Another shot lodged in his right cheek below the eye, and came out just above his mouth. Another one lodged in the muscle of his right arm, and the fourth in his right shoulder. The last three shots inflicted painful flesh wounds, which, however, are not considered of a serious nature.

Warren Weeks, Harve Day and Doc Massie, friends of Ehrheart, who were within hearing distance of the shots, ran to his assistance, and with the help of others in that vicinity, carried the wounded man on a strecher secured from the Carlyle company's shale shed to the boarding house of William Weeks on the Gallia pike.

Drs. Cheney and Hutchens Hurriedly Summoned

Drs. Cheney, of New Boston, and Hutchens, of Sciotoville, were hurriedly summoned, and both arrived soon after Ehrheart had been taken into the Weeks home. They dressed his wounds, but no attempt was made at that time to probe for the bullets.

Misunderstanding over the calling of an ambulance delayed Ehrheart's removal to the Hempstead hospital until about five o'clock, and he laid for fully five hours at the Weeks home suffering from his wounds without medical attention, outside of the first visit of the physicians.

Gun User Calmly Walks Away From Scene

Church, the self-confessed gunuser, walked away from the scene of the shooting, accompanied by his brother, George Church, who was only a short distance away from the spot where Ehrheart fell.

They walked down the hollow to the Gallia pike and started west on Gallia pike toward their home in New Boston. While passing the second house east of the new filtration plant, Izar Church was seen to throw the gun, which he had wrapped in two handkerchiefs, into the weeds along the side of the road. It was later found there by Sheriff Smith, and is now in his custody.

All chambers of the gun were empty, Church having discharged the fifth cartridge against the side of the hill immediately after firing the fourth shot into Ehrheart's body.

Sheriff Smith was notified by telephone a few minutes after the shooting and at once called up the New Boston officials and requested them to arrest the Church brothers, it having been reported to him that one of them had done the shooting. He and his deputy, Rome Arthur, left at once for the scene of the alleged crime on a street car.

Izar Church Gives Himself Up

Before their arrival Izar Church had given himself up, and he and his brother were prisoners in the New Boston jail when the county officials arrived.

Sheriff Smith left his deputy at the jail and went to the Weeks' boarding house near Star Yards to interview the wounded man. He examined all persons knowing anything about the affair, and also visited the physicians and got their story before returning to the New Boston jail.

Two stories were related to the sheriff, according to his statement late Monday afternoon, one by the victim and the other by Izar Church, the gun-user. They varied only in the essential detail that Ehrheart claimed he was shot from the back, while Church contended he shot in self-defense.

Ehrheart told the sheriff that a loan of $3, which he made to Church several months ago in a crap game, was directly responsible for the shooting.

He said that he met Church in a New Boston saloon early Monday morning and asked him to return the $3 which he had loaned him. Church, he said, evidenced no resentment to him for having broached the subject and told him to come up in the hollow later in the morning, at which time he would pay him.

They parted on friendly terms, according to Ehrheart, and about two hours later he and "Bird-Neck" Brown, his companion, started for the hollow.

Favorite Rendezvous For Gamblers

It developed after the shooting that the hollow referred to was the favorite rendezvous for the gamblers of New Boston and vicinity, and that hardly a Sunday passed but that there was a big poker game or crap game in progress.

When Ehrheart and Brown arrived there, the former said that a poker game was in full blast. He named Wesley Sutton, Charles Jones, Ben Collins, John Miller and George Church as the men who were playing when he arrived.

A half-dozen others were looking on, he said, among whom was Izar Church. Soon after his arrival, he claims that Church walked away from the game and started in a westerly direction. Ehrheart claims that he took this as his cue to follow, inasmuch as he understood that Church wanted to pay him.

"What Are You Following Me For?"

After walking about fifty yards, the two turned north again. Church in the lead and Ehrheart following, according to the latter. Only a short distance was required before they were out of sight from the rest, a thick clump of bushes hiding them from view.

Ehrheart says that Church suddenly turned around to him and said, "—— you, what are you following me for?" Ehrheart says he replied, "I thought you said you wanted to pay me that $3." Church's reply to that was to pull a gun and exclaim, "Damn you, I am going to kill you!" according to Ehrheart, who added that he said, "Don't do that, Izar," and turned around to leave him.

While his back was turned, he said that Church fired once, the bullet entering his left side just above the hip. He said he fell to the ground, unable to move the lower part of his body, and that while in that position Church walked up to him, and cursing him several times, continued to fire at him three times, each bullet entering his body.

Ehrheart's story up until the time he left the poker game is corroborated in every detail by his companion, "Bird-Neck" Brown, according to Sheriff Smith.

Stories Coincide Says The Sheriff

The sheriff says that Church's story is exactly similar also to that of Ehrheart, except that he claims that Ehrheart put his right hand to his hip pocket as he approached him as if to shoot him. He also claims that Ehrheart told him in the saloon earlier that unless he paid him he would take it out of his (Church's) hide. This statement, both Ehrheart and Brown deny, the sheriff says. Church has repeatedly declared to the sheriff that he shot in self-defense, according to that official.

George Church, Izar's brother, was released from jail late Monday afternoon by Mayor Davis after it was shown that he had nothing to do with the shooting.

Prosecution of the five alleged poker players will follow Tuesday evening in Mayor Davis' court, according to his statement. They will be charged with gambling.

Ehrheart is about 38 years of age and has been working as miner in the shale bank of the Carlyle Paving Brick Company for the past two months. He resided at 1334 Lincoln street, this city, but since he has been working for the Carlyle company, he has been boarding at the home of Lee McKee, near the Carlyle works.

Izar Church is a police character of New Boston, having been arrested several times, but never before on such a serious offense. Until recently he conducted a billiard parlor in New Boston, but sold out, since which time he has been doing nothing. At one time he was employed at the plant of the Whitaker-Glessner company.

Dr. Wendelken stated Tuesday morning that Ehrheart's spine was affected by the bullet, his body being paralyzed from the hips down.

Girl Shoots Out Her Heart With A Load Of Shot

Ironton, Ohio, June 1.—Coroner O'Neill went to Federal Creek, back of Millers, this county, today to hold a post-mortem examination over the body of Miss Dimple Richardson, pretty sixteen year old niece of C. Henderson, a prominent Federal Creek farmer, who Monday morning placed the muzzle of a shot gun to her heart and pulled the trigger, inflicting a horrible wound in her left side, from which death resulted within a few minutes. The members of the Henderson family were at the barn, a short distance from the house, doing the morning work, when they heard the explosion of the gun and rushed to the house. They found the Richardson girl lying on the floor in the throes of death. She gasped "I shot myself—" and made an effort to speak further but was unable to do so and died within a very brief time, before medical assistance could arrive. Dr. O'Neill gave the members of the Henderson family permission to have the body prepared for burial and will conduct an investigation today.

Miss Richardson's home, until about twelve months ago, was in Cincinnati, her mother having died some time ago and she had been making her home with her father. About a year ago she went to Federal Creek to make her home with her uncle, Mr. Henderson. She was a beautiful girl and was interested in the affairs of the community in which she made her home. The members of the Henderson family can ascribe no reason for suicide and think that death may have been accidental. The girl had gone to memorial services at Millersport on Sunday and returned home in the best of spirits.

After writing the foregoing note Margaret Darlinton, 30, of Manchester, drank crude carbolic acid at Maysville while seeking employment. Her physician says she has a chance to recover. Her husband is at the Athens asylum. She has an eight-year-old son. He will inherit property at Manchester valued at $1,000.

The box office at the theatre will open at 7 a. m. when numbers for the seats will be given out, which may be reserved at 8 a. m.

The exercises in the evening will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

TRACTION BRIDGES ARE BEING BUILT

Contractors Armstrong and Cada who have the contract for the construction of three bridges and several concrete culverts and other concrete work for the Ohio Valley Traction Company for their traction extension from Sciotoville to Ironton, have about completed the concrete piers for the bridge over the Little Scioto river. The track will go up Second street, Sciotoville, the abutment being at the east end of the street. The line on the east side of the Little Scioto will be between the last pier and abutment of the C. & O. Northern bridge.

Two piers and an abutment have been completed on the west side of the Little Scioto. The highest pier of the three is on the west shore and is 45 feet above the ground. The base of the pier is twenty feet in the ground. Solid rock has been struck in excavating for the base of the east bank pier. The east pier will be 30 feet high, the solid rock base not making it necessary for the pier to go so far into the ground. The bridge will be sixty feet above low water stage in the Little Scioto.

The steel channel span will be 150 feet long, the entire bridge being about 450 feet long. Concrete bases for steel girder supports are also completed.

Bridges of about the same size will have to be built over Pine Creek and at Storm Run just this side of Ironton.

Progress Made On C. & O. Grading

Langhorn, Langhorn, Company and Snead, contractors, who have the contract for grading the first one and seven-tenths miles of the C. & O. Northern right of way from Sciotoville, have a large number of men at work and are rushing work. Their work begins at the abutment north of Gallia pike and will consist mainly of cutting away a large portion of Bahner hill and the making of several big fills. A small stream emptying in the Little Scioto back of Bahner hill will be filled over as a concrete culvert over 80 feet long is being constructed to take care of the water.

A temporary trestle is being built so that dump cars can be run out from the hill, dirt taken from the hill being used to make the fill. The side of Bahner hill facing the Little Scioto river has been cleared of all trees so that work can move along without a hitch of any kind. The rainy weather of the past week put the men back but little.

The other contractors along the right of way who are doing grade work have numerous steam shovels, dump trains, dinky engines and an extra large number of men at work.

The route of the railway through the hills will make a picturesque ride for a tourist desiring only a short trip. The road runs through the heart of the hills.

Homer Butz, who conducts a general store at Mineral Springs, was in the city over Decoration Day with his family, Mrs. Butz and two children of Third street, and with Mr. and Mrs. Smith Grimes. Mr. Butz reports quite a number of guests at the Rogers' Hotel at Mineral Springs despite the unfavorable weather of the past three weeks.

Give Sheriff a Tip

Sheriff Ben South, of Wilmington, has been advised by the local police officials that a man named John Newman, of Fire Brick, Ky., when arrested recently for drunkenness, had dropped a remark that caused them to believe he may have had some knowledge of a crime that was committed in Clinton county last year.

FRANKFORT WAS HANDED PAIR OF BEATINGS

The Morning Game Lasted 13 Innings, Fans Applaud Teams

SAILING under the capable leadership of Pat Bohannon, a ball player of wide experience the Frankfort team signalized its first appearance at Millbrook yesterday by dropping two games, the morning contest being a 3 to 2 affair, 13 innings and the afternoon game was taken by the Spencerites 5 to 1. Two splendid crowds witnessed the well played contests, which were spiced with just enough of the flossy stuff in a fielding way to make the games very interesting, especially in the ante-lunch affair, which was battled through to the eventful thirteenth when Frankfort apparently won the game by putting two runs across in their crack at the pill in this inning. But undaunted Portsmouth pilled a belated rally and scored three runs, just enough to win before an out was made. It was a grand finish to a well played game. It did not start until 10:40 and it was 1:40 when Spencer's spiked shoes tapped the rubber with the winning run.

In the afternoon game there was nothing to it but Portsmouth as Big Larry Jacobus insisted on blowing them through in rapid fire order and there was something on every ball. When the last man was put down Frankfort had amassed just 5 scattered hits and one run while Portsmouth had piled up 11 hits, productive of a quintet of runs. The game, however, was full of fancy plays and was interesting.

Portsmouth started scoring in the third inning. For a starter Bruder picked up Jacobus' roller and heaved it over first, Jacobus racing to second. Diltz, attempting to bunt, forced Jacobus at third. It was then that Dillhoefer hit the ball for two bases. With the Dill boys stationed at third and second Sharman came up and on the second ball pitched singled sharply past short, Diltz and Dillhoefer racing home. In the fourth inning Frankfort chalked up its only run on Bohannon's long double to left center and Hall's one base smash to left. The team practically went out in order during the balance of the game so effective was Jacobus' pitching.

In the seventh inning Thomas' toss beat Jacobus to first. Diltz drew a pass and Dillhoefer's single through the box bounced off Umpire Pfirman's back. This time Sharman delivered with a two sacker to the left field fence and overcame the Dill kiddies. Mills was thrown out by Hoffman and Spencer scored to Bohannon.

The last run came in the eighth when Caton beat out a hit to short, was sacrificed to second by Bush and scored on McHenry's ringing single to the middle garden. The score:

MORNING GAME.

Ferguson and Brozowski staged a genuine pitchers' battle in the morning game, neither team scoring until the thirteenth. Time and again runners were in a scoring position but at these stages old Mr. Pinch Hitter would take a vacation and scoreless innings were clipped off with automatic-like precision.

In the sixth inning Frankfort wasted a glorious chance to grab a safe lead as before Ferguson could get set the Kentuckians had clogged the sacks with no one down. Thomas led off with a hit, Kimble drew a pass and Angermeir beat a bunt. The situation was hellish, but Ferguson kept his nerve and when Bohannon topped to Bush Thomas was nailed at the plate on a force out. Hall then hit to the infield and Kimble perished at the plate. Boulware contributed the third out when he whiffed at three.

It was in the thirteenth when Frankfort to all intents and purposes won the game. Kimble shot a single into right. Ferguson threw Angermeir's bunt past second, all hands being safe. Bohannon clipped a single to right and the bases were full. Hall sent a long fly to Sharman that emitted Kimble with the first run of the game, Boulware hit to Caton and his throw home was too late to get Angermeir. Hoffman breezed and Ferguson tossed out his pitching opponent.

Portsmouth then waded right into the fading Brozowski, Sharman earned a pass on four wide ones. Mills singled to center. Spencer hit to the pitcher and all hands were safe when Brozowski failed to get Sharman at third. Caton singled, so did Bush through the pitchers' box and in scampered Sharman, Mills and Spencer and the stuff was off. It was a beautifully played game and the fans stuck it out. It was one of those kind you read about in the little blue book. The score:

A FEW PICKUPS AND GROUNDERS

The fans were certainly relieved when they saw Umpire Pfirman adjust his regalia and then heard him announce the batteries.

Ferguson and Brozowski pitched grand ball in the morning contest. Aside from being a trifle wild they completely fooled the batters.

Sharman and Spencer staged a little playlet Monday afternoon entitled "The Hitting Pair." They whanged out six clean hits.

The Frankfort team the way it "mess up has no business being so far behind the other teams. It is pretty well balanced.

The fans were full of applause yesterday. The applauded all the plays, visiting and home and it reminded the fans of the days when Portsmouth won its pennants in the Ohio State.

Bush's catch in the afternoon struggle was a brilliant bit of fielding. Bush has earned a permanent home here.

Thomas at third for the Old Taylors looks like a player who should go higher. He throws accurately, fields cleanly and has a lot of pepper.

Johannon can still ride the gate. He worked with a lot of vim Monday and urged his players to cop the morning contest and they all but turned the trick.

Angermeir formerly played in the Blue Grass league. He is an old timer, but his arm is as good as it ever was and he hats timely and hard.

Failed To Hit Safely

Some one spread a little alum on Larry Jacobus' batting average Monday. He failed to get one safe going out on infield taps. But Larry pitched one swell game and he had the old Taylors feeding out of his hand.

MAMAUX IS GOING FINE

Mamoux is certainly pitching wonderful ball for the Pittsburgh Pirates. The former Ohio State leaguer beat Chicago yesterday 4 to 0. He has now won 8 games out of 7 for the Pirates. Mamaux was picked up from the Huntington team. Many fans declare the lad to be one of the most skilled horsemen who ever cut one over Ohio State league plates.

TO STRENGTHEN SENATORS

The Charleston team will be strengthened at once.

Manager Biddy Beers, and Secretary Chilton have lines out for three new men, which if landed will greatly strengthen the battle front of the Senators, who have now lost seven games in a row.

Callahan Released

Louisville, Ky., June 1.—Dave Callahan, an outfielder, with the Louisville American Association club since the latter part of the 1914 season, has been released to Wichita of the Western league.

Say Caton Was Safe

For awhile it looked like the first game Monday would not be finished as Manager Spencer threatened to send his men to the clubhouse when Umpire Bacon called Caton out at the plate.

McHenry shot a single to right and Caton came tearing home. Hall made a fine peg in the plate but most of the fans thought that Caton beat the ball home and let out a terrific roar when Bacon waved the local shortstop out. An argument ensued and when Jacobus ruled that Caton was safe many of the fans left the park.

FULL OF GOOD PLAYERS

"There are more hustling young ball players in the Ohio State league than in any league I have ever seen," said Umpire Pfirman last night. "The league is actually full of prospects and the scouts should reap a rich harvest in this league when the dog days of August return."

Fans Like The Swatters

The fans warm up to the boys who can ride the old pill. Sharman, Spencer, Mills, Jacobus, Diltz and McHenry were given the glad hand every time they stepped up to the plate Monday.

TEAM SHOWS CLASS

It has been many months since Portsmouth fans were privileged to witness two prettier games than the ones staged in Millbrook Monday.

The Frankfort team despite their lowly position battled courageously against the leaders and would have secured an even split had they secured the breaks in the morning game. Manager Johannon has a scrappy club and the "Old Taylors" battled the home team down to the last ditch yesterday. Rickard and Brozowski showed a lot of stuff and the team fielded sharply.

DE PALMA WINNER OF BIG AUTOMOBILE RACE

Indianapolis, June 1.—Ralph De Palma won the fifth annual 500 mile International sweepstakes on the Indianapolis motor speedway here Monday in the remarkable time of 5 hours, 33 minutes, 55½ seconds. The victor traveled an average speed of 89.84 miles an hour and broke the record established in 1911 by Rene Thomas, who finished in 6 hours, 9 minutes 35.9 seconds.

Dario Resta, who finished second, contested every mile of the way with the winner and the battle of these two pilots was the feature of the contest. Resta finished only four minutes after the winner crossed the tape. Resta's time was 5 hours, 37 minutes, 34.04 seconds. Gill Anderson was third and completed the race in 5 hours, 42 minutes, 27.57 seconds. Out of 23 cars that started eleven finished, of which ten received prize money.

That De Palmas victory was a popular one was shown by the demonstration by the thousands of spectators who rose and cheered wildly as the winner finished his last lap. De Palma's first words were praise for the mechanician who rode by his side during the long grind.

De Palma drove a consistent race. He never was back of fourth place. He wrested the lead from Resta in the 175th mile. He lost the lead in the 315th mile when he stopped at the pits but regained it in the 335th when Resta skidded into the retaining wall and was forced to make a tire change as a result.

This year's race was the first held here in which no person was injured. The track was ideal for high speed. Speedway officials said today that the record will probably stand for years.

Ten drivers divided the $50,000 prize money of which De Palma's share is $20,000.

GREAT PAIR

It has been a long, long time since Portsmouth has picked up a pair of infielders as the Caton-Bush combination. Their work around the keystone stack is smooth and accurate. They turn seemingly impossible plays into outs and handled everything slammed their way in skilled fashion. They have the knack of smothering the pill, can whip it around and cover enough ground for a circus lot.

Nutter Is Sold

According to word from Charleston Outfielder Nutter has been sold to the Cedar Rapids team and will report there just as soon as Shortstop Dunbert returns to Charleston. He has been playing with Ray Ryan's Rocky Mount team, but does not like the South and is anxious to get back to the Ohio State.

Fans Well Pleased

Many Portsmouth fans glimpsed the local team for the first time Monday. And weather had kept them away from the park until yesterday. They saw a well managed, smooth baseball machine in action. And they heartily approved it.

Returning on the cars from the park the fans heaped all sorts of praise upon the team as it flies up today. The clock-like precision with which it made plays was a revelation to the fans. Many of them unhesitatingly declared the team to be one of the very best that has ever represented Portsmouth. Manager Spencer is working right with the boys and splendid results have so far been obtained from the successful methods pursued by the local leader.

ON SWING-AROUND CIRCUIT

After a few hours' stay in the city President Joe Carr of the Ohio State league left on the noon N. & W. train for Ironton Monday afternoon. He is going to take a swing around the circuit before returning to Columbus.

President Carr is right on the job as he is keeping in touch with the affairs of the league. He is well pleased with the enthusiasm the cities are showing over their new teams and is confident that the league will send up a lot of players to higher leagues this season.

KEEPS THINGS MOVING

Umpire Pfirman was given a great hand when he trotted out on the field yesterday afternoon. He is popular here because he keeps the players moving and sees every play that is pulled off. He was unable to reach here in time for Monday morning's game and Jacobus and Bacon handled the indicator.

POND CREEK DEFEATED

Pond Creek nine went down to defeat Sunday at Dry Run by a score of 13 to 4, Dry Run being on the long end of the score. Montavon caught for Pond Creek while Zuelle and Vencie took turns in the box. Sadler caught for the winners and Lewis did the twirling.

Bicycle Races Successful; Bender And Brunner Win

Highly successful from every standpoint were the two bicycle races run Monday afternoon. Donald Bender won the five mile event for boys under 16 and Howard Brunner won the ten mile endurance race for lads over 16. Gallia street, from Waller to Chillicothe, and Chillicothe to Seventeenth were filled with people eager to view the racers.

Promoters of the races complimented the valiant service the police rendered in keeping the race course clear and it was through their hard efforts that no one was struck or hurt by any of the riders. The interest displayed by the racers and spectators went far beyond expectation.

The first race started promptly at two o'clock, the scheduled time. The racers started from the postoffice, north on Chillicothe to Cole's Boulevard, east on the Boulevard to Kinney's Lane, west on Kinney's Lane to Offnere, south on Offnere to Gallia and west on Gallia to the postoffice. Francis Knapp and Stanley Prichard were the promoters of the races and the success Monday will mean that more races will be run. The next big race will probably be on July 4.

The bicycle dealers who were among the prize givers are R. S. Prichard, B. Davenport, Francis Knapp, Harley-Davidson Sales company, Glockner Hardware company, Homer Brunton and Emil Arthurs.

A large number of contestants entered their names in the races but never appeared to ride. Thirteen contestants started in the ten mile race. The first race, five miles, was once around the Boulevard while the ten mile race consisted of two laps of the same course.

Donald Bender, 15, who carried off first prize in the five mile race made the course in fifteen minutes and 25 seconds. He received a pair of tires from B. Davenport. Ray Bybee, 14, came in second. He received a spring seat from Homer Brunton. The remaining eight prize winners finished as follows, receiving the below listed prizes: Third, A. Noel; fourth, Albert Storer; fifth, Jack Sargent; sixth, Reginald Miller; seventh, J. Collis; eighth, H. Waters; ninth, Warren Shump; tenth, Howard Smith:

Fourth prize: One small light, donated by Francis Knapp.

Sixth prize: One pair rat-trap pedals, donated by B. Davenport.

Eighth prize: One tool bag, donated by R. S. Prichard.

The ten mile race was a runaway for Howard Brunner, 17, one of the youngest in the race, he leaving his opponent far behind. His time for the ten miles was 34 minutes and 25 seconds. Brunner is employed at the Home Vulcanizing company and received as first prize a bicycle from R. S. Prichard and Glockner Hardware company. Oscar Wikoff who came in second, received a pair of tires from the Harley-Davidson Sales company. The other eight prize winners and the list of prizes donated follow: Third, Joe Schmidt; fourth, Edward Riehl; fifth, C. C. Houston; sixth, Clarence Oakes; seventh, Clay Lantz; eighth, Wesley Harris; ninth, Harry White; tenth, Oscar Payne.

Sixth prize: One frame foot pump, donated by Homer Brunton.

Eighth prize: One pair rat-trap pedals, donated by Emil Arthurs.

Next To The Last

Oh, soldier of the Civil War,
Your eyes are dim, your form is bent,
Your allotted years are almost spent,
And Death stands waiting at the door.

The Great Commander beckons you
To join your comrades over there,
Where every pain and every tear
Have earned you better things to do.

The march, the battle, hunger, cold,
The wounds, the sufferings, and ills,
The tale with which the bosom thrills
Shall soon no more be proudly told.

They perish with you. Bard nor pen
Shall tell the story of your deeds;
Your path of glory only leads,
To the forgotten deeds of men.

Why worry, 'tis the common lot
The individual fades away;
Or faintly flutters for a day,
Is here, is there, and then forgot.

The thought of duty nobly done,
In this great land's most critical need
Is yours forever. Earth recedes.
On other shores the meed is won.

—Goldie Lantz.

Engineer's Suggestion

It has been suggested to City Engineer George S. Wilhelm that in the matter of the temporary roadway destroying traffico east from Chestnut street there should be just a little of the summit from Gallia street cut down and thrown in the low places along the balance of the incline from the street railway north. This, it is thought, will reduce the incline to some extent and at the same time fill up the depressions without moving any unnecessary material.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and nobody can tell. Brush it through hair.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Five Students Get Diplomas At N. B. Commencement Tonight

Every detail connected with the perfecting of an extraordinary program for the New Boston High School commencement has been carefully looked after by Superintendent S. D. Eckhart and the graduation exercises will take place at the Millbrook Casino Tuesday evening at eight o'clock as previously announced.

Hon. O. T. Carson, editor of the Ohio Educational Monthly, and ex-state school commissioner, will deliver the class address.

Bode's orchestra of this city has been secured to furnish the music for the evening. The Steel Plant Boys' Band will be present to render several selections. The majority of the members of the band are pupils of the village schools. The school chorus composed of pupils from different grades has been practicing several special songs for the occasion. Rev. Morris Bridwell, of the New Boston Baptist church, who delivered the baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening, will have charge of the devotional part of the exercises. At the conclusion of a short speech, Supt. S. D. Eckhart, will present the five students with their much coveted diplomas. The graduates are Golda Alene O'Neal, Elza Carl Porter, Ernest S. Taylor, Raymond L. Haselip and Lonie Onan Chinn.

The stage will be prettily decorated with the class colors, purple and gold. The class flower, the white rose, will be abundantly used in the decorations along with ferns and palms. The members of the school board have been invited to attend and they are expected to be present in a body. One member of the board will probably make a short talk.

The New Boston schools have for some time held the distinction of being the best of any village of a like size in the state. The school board is composed of the following members: Frank G. Taylor, president; Thomas York, John Bell, J. C. Harris, John Noel and Clerk Roy H. Coburn.

NEW CORN CURE PRINCIPLE

Dr. Hunt's Wonderful Penetration Method. PRICE ONLY 10c.

It remained for Dr. Hunt of Sidney, Ohio, to solve the corn problem. Folks had tried other remedies with only partial success.

So, Dr. Hunt got at the root of the matter by getting at the root of the corn with his wonderful penetration method.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Trim plaster size of corn and apply.

An amazing ingredient, discovered by Dr. Hunt penetrates the corn, eases it immediately, loosens it root and branch so that in two days the corn lifts right out.

No pain, no throbbing toe, no bulky uncomfortable pads to press on the sore spot, no discomfort whatever. Wear your regular shoes. Corn is cured while you walk about. Don't use caustic ingredients that eat off only the top of the corn and stimulate its further growth. Cure your corn the new way, the scientific way by using Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure. Cures by penetration.

Ten cents brings you a box full. Guaranteed or money back. Sold by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or, send ten cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

ST. MARY'S COMMENCEMENT A SUCCESS IN ALL PARTICULARS

The annual commencement exercises of St. Mary's, parochial school, which were held at St. Mary's hall Monday evening, proved a sucess in every way.

Always clever entertainers, the pupils of this parochial school did themselves proud Monday evening rendering a most interesting program and one that was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd that was present.

The stage and hall were decorated with the 1915 class pennants and the class motto "Today Not Tomotrow" in bronzed letters while the new and perfect electric lighting system, with which the building was recently equipped contribute largely to the scenic effects and was particularly appreciated during the skillfully enacted pantomine "Abide With Me" by the girls of the graduating class.

The program opened very appropriately with a piano trio "The Liberty Bell" by Misses Gertrude Billian, Dorothy Haag and Marcella Sommer, which was much applauded.

The chorus song of welcome by the class drew rounds of applause. Alphonse Sommer and Louis Schaefer came in for their share of applause by their artistic playing of the several piano duets, "Jolly Brothers," "Silver Spray," "Military March," "Golden Glow," with which the program was interspersed. A dumb bell march and drill by an even dozen of bright faced, clean cut looking little boys, marching with the steady precision of trained warriors and wielding their dumb bells like so many professional acrobats, fairly brought down the house. The audience did not for a moment tire watching their various and difficult manouvers extended though they were, and it was easily one of the best features of the highly pleasing entertainment.

No less praise worthy was the drama "Honesty Is the Best Policy," this sketch keeping the crowd in a good humor from start to finish and each member of the cast, Frank Briggs as Mr. Brown, a commission merchant; George Welty as a Jew peddler; Miss Adelaide Orlett as a fortune teller and Frank Barron as Phelim Flynn, a boy applying for a position, creditably enacting their respective roles. The latter's interpretation of the Irish boy could not have been improved upon and was one of the real hits of the evening.

The ingenuity of the Sisters of St. Francis in preparing the children for the entertainment was clearly demonstrated in the operetta "The Flowers' Choice." The tastily gowned girls each typifying some flower and presenting her claim for recognition presented a scene beautiful to behold. Miss Mary Blair represented the Rose, Miss Marcella Sommer the Poppy, Miss Margaret Frantz the Chrysanthemum, Miss Alma Jeffords the Sunflower, Misses Genevieve Thoman, Regina Reitz and Irene Spence, Violets, Misses C. Gengenbacher and A. Goodman, Forget-Me-Nots, Misses H. Schaefer and M. McAfee, Pinks, Misses B. Streuber and A. Brennan, Lilies, Misses L. Glockner and A. Russell, Daisies, Miss D. Butler, Pansy, and Miss A. Diemer, Snow Drops.

Miss Gertrude Billian very charmingly delivered an essay on the class motto "Today, Not Tomorrow," advancing good and sound arguments in support of her claim that true success is gained by meeting the opportunity as it presents itself.

The next number on the program was the song, "Summer's Joy" by the class followed by an allegory "At the Portals," artistically presented by Misses M. Vetter, C. Scheffler, G. Kirby and M. Glockner in their respective roles as Past, Present, Future and Religion and religion's attendants, Faith, Hope and Charity.

Miss Dorothy Haag with much grace and convincing effect, perfectly delighted her hearers with an essay on "Noble and Illustrious Women," which concluded with a most eloquent tribute to that noblest and greatest of all women, Mary, the Blessed Virgin and Mother of God.

Certificates were now conferred by Rev. Father Tiberius A. Goebel, the parish pastor, to the following eighth grade pupils for successfully passing the annual examinations: Edward Buels, Edward Butler, Paul Frederick, Richard Haag, Frank Barron, Alphonse Sommer, Clarence Keller, Paul Smith, Louis Schaefer, Benjamin Meisel, Misses Eva Brown, Margaret Frantz and Marcella Sommer.

The entertainment was brought to a fitting close with a stirring farewell song by the class. Credit for the genuine success of the entertainment and exercises is due the good Sisters who have charge of the school.

Owing to the limited seating capacity of the hall which precluded all purchasers of tickets from attending the opening exercises the program will be repeated tonight when diplomas will be conferred upon the members of the graduating class. These are the following: Misses Dorothy Haag, Gertrude Billian, Vera Seymour, Mary Blair, Rosa Kern, Masters George Welty, Fred Briggs and Paul Yuenger.

The parochial school closed its very successful year on Tuesday.

Prizes Offered To Broom Corn Growers

In an effort to have the farmers of Scioto, Adams, Pike, Jackson and Lawrence counties of Ohio and Greenup county in Kentucky take a greater interest in raising broom corn, The Bauer Broom company of 1129 Seventeenth street, this city, has arranged a Broom Corn Growing Contest and it will no doubt be taken up in earnest by broom corn-growers in this vicinity.

Handsome prizes are to go to the winners as a means of stimulating a new interest in this particular line.

This firm will give one dozen best carpet brooms to the one that raises the largest crop and one dozen best carpet brooms to the farmer raising the best crop.

Don't plant in rich soil or in sandy loam; in up-land or hillside it will grow much better. Planted here it will grow better and with much less labor. Drill in not more than two or three inches a part in rows, but make the rows two and a half feet apart. Be sure and plant it thick enough. Where it is thin on rich soil it will grow too coarse and rough.

Bucktown, Cocaine Swept, Stages Much Lawlessness

A wave of lawlessness, due to excessive sniffing of cocaine, swept over Bucktown Monday night.

Beat Up His Widowed Mother

Harrey Powell, a stuttering negro youth, was so crazed by the drug that he went home and beat up his widowed mother. He cluttered in police court Tuesday that someone had "spiked" with a handful of "coke" the can of beer that he and others were rushing. He was fined $5 and ordered put to work on the streets.

Claimed To Be Shoving "Coke"

How Parrish, Horace Conely, Clarence Johnson and Arthur Chappel were the names given by four negroes rounded up on suspicion of trafficking in the drug. They are said to have sold to Frank Hollingsworth and Bess Hurd, who were on another rampage Saturday night. The police also secured the name of another negro who is said to have been peddling cocaine in the North End in wholesale quantities.

Followed Women To Their Homes

John Thomas, another strange negro, who while crazed by the use of cocaine, followed white and colored women to the gates of their homes and showed fight when ordered away, was also fined $5 and put to work on the streets.

"Freight Train" Hit This Fellow

Luther Stone, Marion and Ed Ferguson, young Kentuckians, who had called Carpenter John Noel a vile name, were fined $5 each. One of them explained a gig cut on the back of the head was due to a fall he sustained from a freight train. "He might have thought a freight train caught him when my boy knocked him down," stammered out Noel, amid much laughter.

Ace Helton and Dan Holbert were fined $20 each for fighting at an East End saloon, but $15 was remitted in each case.

Van De Lavell, who celebrated the holiday by tearing up the patch at his North End home, drew a $5 fine. Clarence McDonald, who was charged with fighting, was dismissed, but $10 was assessed against both Jake and Will Hill because they failed to appear. Tona Fiola and Jos. Latony, charged with disorderly conduct, and J. M. Wycoff and Frank Higgins, plain drunks, were taxed $5 each.

Accused Of Assaulting Wife

Andy Patterson, who was accused of assaulting his wife, was given a suspended fine of $10 and costs pending good behavior. Robert Marchetta, who used vulgar language within hearing of Officer Flowers and the latter's young daughter, was fined $10. Harry Lee was fined $5 for begging on the streets.

HAD FINE TIME IN SOUTHLAND

Gen. and Mrs. Jacob H. Smith have returned from a delightful trip to Chattanooga, Tenn., where they were royally entertained by old and new friends. Gen. Smith says he is more than ever in love with the South and the people of the South, for they certainly know how to make their guests feel at home and enjoy themselves, and are gentlemen and ladies in every respect.

General and Mrs. Smith left Portsmouth May 11, staying a short time in Cincinnati and then going on to Chattanooga. They returned Saturday evening.

The Salvation Army Had Some Big Work

Under the leadership of Capt. E. Robinson and her capable assistants, Cadets Hazelwood and Licklider, the Salvation Army did a big work in this city during the past winter. The report, which has been delayed owing to Captain Robinson being injured in an automobile accident some time ago, shows the army looked after the wants of 150 families and distributed more than 200 garments, eight bed comforts, three mattresses, one bed spring and five cots. The army furnished many baskets of wholesome food to the needy and administered in many other ways to the comfort of the poor people of the city. Captain Robinson stated Tuesday that the army could now distribute wearing apparel, especially to men and children, and that she and her co-workers would be grateful indeed to any one who would donate clothing.

The army has grown considerably since the new officers took command of the local barracks. Sixteen new members are now being enrolled and the outlook is very encouraging indeed. A big time is expected on Wednesday and Thursday of this week when Brigadier and Mrs. Dusham of Cincinnati, will visit here. They will preach at the Salvation Army headquarters, 1028 Chillicothe streets both nights, and everyone is invited to attend the services.

BABY SHOW, BOY SCOUTS DRAMA, ETC., DREW A BIG CROWD TO MILLBROOK

Under gray leaden skies picturesque Millbrook park was formally opened Monday, Decoration Day, under the auspices of the local Tribe of Ben Hur. A vast crowd thronged the pretty park and all the concessions did a splendid business. Bowling, dancing, boating, skating and base ball were indulged in, and at the Millbrook Casino the Marine Club of the Ben Hurs presented a four act play entitled "On the Little Big Horn." It was enjoyed by a splendid audience in the afternoon and a capacity audience applauded every feature of the play last night.

One of the most interesting features of the Ben Hur festivities was the Baby Show contest held on the porch of the Casino at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. The judges were M. E. Littlejohn of Wheelersburg, J. A. Lutz and Benjamin Rhodes.

The first prize was captured by Delbert, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hurth of 822 Gay street. The winner was presented with a gold necklace.

The second prize went to Dorothy Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Carpenter, who was presented with a fancy little dress.

The third prize went to Margaret Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Daniels of 1304 Kenyon street, who was given a fine doll.

There were 27 entrants and the judges had much difficulty in picking out the prettiest babies as they found them all good looking. Their ages ranged from 6 to 18 months.

The Young Ladies' Platoon Drill under direction of Charles Bowser, took place in front of the Casino and was greatly enjoyed, the ladies drilling with great skill and accuracy.

Sixty Boy Scouts executed a number of clever maneuvers for the hundreds of people that surrounded the Casino and applauded their work. They gave a fine demonstration of first-aid-to-the-injured methods, expert signalling, mounted wrestling and pyramid signalling. The boys injected a lot of snap into their work, which was a revelation to the big throng.

For many years the Ben Hurs have opened Millbrook park and the opening yesterday was an ideal success. The skating pavilion was packed all day, the merry-go-round drew its full quota, the refreshment concessions all did a thriving business as the park was filled with people all day.

Charles J. Miller and Charles Spratt headed the Ben Hur committee that looked after the opening festivities at Millbrook park yesterday. They were on the job every minute of the day and kept things moving splendidly.

The boys' race from 14 to 18 was won by Tom Williams, who received a ball. Herbert Tucker was second and secured a mitt.

The race for small boys was won by Payson Gould, who received a ball. Henry Snyder was second and he was presented with a bat.

Margaret Egbert won the race for girls and Gosia Pendleton was second. They received boxes of candy for their sprinting abilities.

LONDON RAIDED IN NIGHT BY SQUAD OF DREADED ZEPPELINS

INHABITANTS SLEEP, ADMIRALTY GIVES OUT MERE ANNOUNCEMENT

London, June 1.—Zeppelin airships long expected reached London last night but the several million inhabitants of the metropolis slept peacefully through the raid and all they knew this morning was the brief facts in the admiralty announcement of reports that the raiders flew over certain outlying sections of the city. The official announcement makes mention also of numerous fires which may or may not have been connected with the raid.

None of the evening newspapers have yet published information or further details to supplement the bare announcement from the admiralty.

The ordinary life and business of London is being carried on as usual, except small groups discuss with intense curiosity a crop of wild rumors.

So far as the public here has been allowed to know a general lull prevails on the different military fronts. It is apparent nevertheless, that fighting is still proceeding along the river San in the vicinity of Przemysl. This is the extent of the information given out by Vienna which contents itself with the bare mention of the fact but says nothing either in confirmation or further denial of reported Russian success at this point.

Shows Germany's Profits So Far In European War

Berlin, June 1—Professor Penck, the head of the Royal Geographical Society, has struck a balance sheet of profits and losses in the war so far and finds the profits of Germany outweigh her losses to the allies. His balance sheet takes in events only to April 1, so that with the Austro-German victory in Galicia and the invasion of the Russian Baltic provinces German claims to a "profit" in the war now are even better founded. Professor Penck's account reads roughly as follows:

PROFIT

Territory conquered in Belgium and France (square miles)	19,250
Population thereof	10,000,000
(Conquered districts include the most important iron and coal mines and industrial sections of our enemies' territory.)
Territory conquered in Russia (square miles)	23,100
Population thereof	6,000,000
Minimum losses of our foes in the west (eight months)	1,500,000
Minimum losses of our foes in Russia	3,400,000
Total, roundly	5,000,000
Constant average monthly loss of all our foes	600,000

German fleet still undestroyed. England's "starvation plan" collapsed. Unity of German nation in arms and realization that it is fighting "for great ideals of humanity."

LOSS

Hostility of neutral countries, due to German violation of Belgian neutrality.

German territory occupied by foe (square miles)	308
Austrian territory occupied by foe (square miles)	21,175
Population thereof	6,000,000

Our colonies and export trade.

Professor Penck says Germany is justified in expecting that "in a few months France will have bled to death and Russia been militarily exhausted."

PRESIDENT AND CABINET TO GATHER TODAY TO DRAFT EMPHATIC NOTE TO KAISER

Washington, June 1—On today's session of President Wilson and his cabinet of ten advisers depends the course which the United States government will pursue in one of the gravest international situations that has ever confronted.

Three weeks ago today the president and the cabinet after two hours of debate decided to send Germany a note demanding full reparation for the loss of more than 100 American lives when the British steamer Lusitania was torpedoed without warning and asking for guarantees that American rights on the high seas would not be again violated.

Germany's unyielding answer regarded by officials as evading the main points at issue, was before today's meeting. A decision to send a second note, brief and emphatic, setting forth the American government's position on the disputed points raised by Germany's note was generally predicted in executive quarters. What would result in the event of a non-compliance by Germany; whether the United States would, in its communication indicate its course or name a time limit within which a reply would be expected were matters of general speculation in all quarters.

That the note will not be sent before Thursday is the prevalent belief because Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, has been granted an interview with the president for tomorrow. Its purpose has not been revealed but in Austro-German quarters it is said he will endeavor by informal discussion to reach an understanding as to the wishes of the United States for transmission to his government at Berlin.

The view that the German ambassador, because of his difficulties in cable communication is not closely informed on the attitude of his own government prevails in quarters close to the White House, for which reason it is hardly thought the ambassador's visit will alter whatever determination is reached at the cabinet meeting.

Irrespective of the seriousness of the delicate point that has been reached in relations with Germany, the president has determined to issue today after discussion with the cabinet his statement to be communicated to all Mexican factions demanding an early restoration of order by the Mexicans themselves and indicating that unless this is done some other means will be employed to save the population from the effects of the famine and the extensive devastation wrought by the internal warfare.

MINE VICTIMS ARRIVE

New York, June 1.—Four of the crew of the American steamer Greenbrier sunk April 3 by a mine in the North Sea were today brought to New York by the American steamer Brindhila from Amsterdam.

CALLS GERMAN REPLY "DIPLOMATIC BLUNDER"

Paris, June 1—Under the caption, "What Will American Do?" the French press comments on German's reply to the United States' note of protest regarding the sinking of the Lusitania. All papers agree in characterizing the answer as another German diplomatic "blunder." They declare Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg is endeavoring to open a controversy to gain time.

The Matin says the Imperial Chancellor invites the United States to abandon her neutrality by exerting pressure on Great Britain to induce the latter country to give up her blockade, "that is to say, abandon her naval supremacy" in consideration of which the German admiralty would "cease assassination of the passengers and crews of unarmed ships."

The Journal believes Germany, knowing the calm moderation of President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan, who has resolved not to be forced into anything precipitately will end by exasperating America. The paper declares the president and secretary of state are Democratic leaders of a Democratic nation who must follow rather than be led by public opinion.

ITALIANS TAKE ZUGNA; SERBIA RESUMES WAR

Rome, May 31—(Via Paris, June 1)—The following statement of the Italian military forces was issued tonight by General Cadorna, chief of the general staff:

"The advance of our troops beyond the Tyrol-Trentino frontier continues and we have occupied the important heights of Zugna, about four miles north of Ala, which dominate Rovereto. Upon these heights the Austrians some time ago erected the fortress built.

"Our artillery fire on the plateau being followed up, the fire of the Austrian fortification Belvidere diminished in intensity and our infantry is solidly established upon the ridge.

"Our front advancing in Val Sugana has arrived within five miles of Borgo and is supported strongly on the slopes of the valley. The mountain of Belvedere, which dominates Fiera di Primiero in the Cismon valley, is also in our hands.

"A battalion and a half of Austrians with machine guns attacked our Alpine troops in a defile of Monte Croce, on the Carinn frontier May 30. The Alpine troops repulsed five spirited attacks delivered one after the other, after which they took the offensive in a violent storm and thick fog putting their assailants to flight. Our losses were light.

"The rain continues on the Friuli frontier and the water courses are swollen, but our troops advance."

SERBIAN REPORT

Nish, Serbia, June 1—(Via London)—The resumption of military operations on the part of Serbia against Austria is indicated in an official announcement issued today. It is to report the military authorities from a successful artillery engagement as a result of which a detachment of Austrians, which was fortifying itself to the northeast, was dispersed.

Considerable military activity on the part of the Serbians has been noted also on the Albanian frontier.

Several months have passed since Serbia has been actively engaged in important military operations against Austria-Hungary. It was in December that the last heavy fighting was reported. Recent dispatches have indicated that a new Serbian army was being organized and that a resumption of hostilities might be expected. On the other hand Austria also has been making preparations and a dispatch early in May said a new army was getting ready to take the field against Serbia. It has predicted that Serbia would strike again as soon as Austria was well occupied with the situation on her Italian frontier.

TURKISH REPORT

Athens, June 1—(Via London)—Latest advices reaching here from Constantinople are that the battle cruiser Sultan Selim, formerly the Goshen, has been virtually dismantled.

Recent developments at the Dardanelles are described as having cast a gloom over the Turkish capital, where a strong current of opinion is in favor of opening the straits and negotiating for peace.

During the recent British submarine raid in the sea of Marmora and off Constantinople there was a condition of panic in the city. The people shouted that the Russians were coming and vessels were hastily withdrawn to the far end of the Golden Horn. Troops on board transports disembarked and some guns were fired at the submarine.

Italians and Greeks continue to arrive at Dedeagatch by rail. They report that Constantinople was covered by this raid. One of the results was the dispatch of all the troops available to the Dardanelles.

Talaat Bey had the Armenian patriarch brought before him. He remonstrated with the behavior of the Armenians and warned the patriarch that conditions must improve.

ATTEMPT TO DAMAGE GUNS IN U. S. FORT

Port Townsend, Wash., June 1—An attempt to put out of commission the big guns at Fort Worden and Fort Flagler, guarding the entrance to Puget Sound, was made several days ago, it became known today, and as a result all visitors have been barred from the forts in this district. It is reported that breech blocks of four guns were removed and the loading mechanism damaged.

The discovery followed a report that Fort Worden had been photographed in detail by persons who had surreptitiously entered the grounds. The photos gave the relative locations of the big guns and the hidden batteries.

Up to the time of these discoveries automobiles with sightseers were permitted to visit the elevation where the batteries are located, but now orders have been issued forbidding any person to visit the batteries without a special permit commanding officer, and those who receive them must be accompanied by a guard.

GIVES HER LIFE FOR NEW BORN BABY BOY

Mrs. Ersel Greene, aged 23 years, wife of Samuel L. Greene, an N. & W. round house employee of No. 2916 Gallia street, died very suddenly and under most pathetic circumstances at Hempstead hospital shortly after midnight, giving her life for her new born baby boy.

Mrs. Greene gave birth to a boy Monday noon and immediately developed convulsions from which she never rallied. She was rushed to the hospital in Lynn's ambulance after nine o'clock Monday night and at exactly 11:45 o'clock she breathed her last. The child, which was her first born, is still living and reported thriving nicely.

Mrs. Greene was born at Summit Station, near Ashland, Ky., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchinson. The mother arrived here shortly before the daughter passed away. She was married three years ago to Mr. Greene and they had been residents of East Portsmouth for the past two years.

Mrs. William Wallace, of Gallipike, was a sister. Other sisters and brothers surviving her are the following: Misses Erie, Hazel and Marie Hutchinson, of Summit Station, Roscoe Hutchinson, who is in the regular army service in Texas, Ollie, Donald and D. C. Hutchinson of Summit Station.

Mrs. Greene was a member of the Methodist church of Ashland and a young woman of most pleasing disposition. Her untimely and unusually sad death has filled her numerous friends with deepest sorrow.

The remains will be taken to Ashland Wednesday and will be buried in a cemetery near the family home at Summit Station on Thursday.

FRANKFORT WAS HANDED PAIR OF BEATINGS

The Morning Game Lasted 13 Innings, Fans Applaud Teams

SAILING under the capable leadership of Pat Bohannon, a ball player of wide experience the Frankfort team signalized its first appearance at Millbrook yesterday by dropping two games, the morning contest being a 3 to 2 affair, 13 innings and the afternoon game was taken by the Spencerites 5 to 1. Two splendid crowds witnessed the well played contests, which were spiced with just enough of the flossy stuff in a fielding way to make the games very interesting, especially in the ante lunch affair, which was battled through to the eventful thirteenth when Frankfort apparently won the game by putting two runs across in their crack at the pill in this inning. But undaunted Portsmouth pulled a belated rally and scored three runs, just enough to win before an out was made. It was a grand finish to a well played game. It did not start until 10:40 and it was 1:40 when Spencer's spiked shoes tapped the rubber with the winning run.

In the afternoon game there was nothing to it but Portsmouth as Big Larry Jacobus insisted on blowing them through in rapid fire order and there was something on every ball. When the last man was put down Frankfort had amassed just 5 scattered hits and one run while Portsmouth had piled up 11 hits, productive of a quintet of runs. The game, however, was full of fancy plays and was interesting.

Portsmouth started scoring in the third inning. For a starter Bruder picked up Jacobus' roller and heaved it over first, Jacobus racing to second. Diltz, attempting to bunt, forced Jacobus at third. It was then that Dillhoefer hit the ball for two bases. With the Dill boys stallioned at third and second Sharman came up and on the second ball pitched singled sharply past short, Diltz and Dillhoefer racing home. In the fourth inning Frankfort chalked up its only run on Bohannon's long double to left center and Hall's one base smash to left. The team practically went out in order during the balance of the game so effective was Jacobus' pitching.

In the seventh inning Thomas' long beat Jacobus to first. Diltz drew a pass and Dillhoefer's single through the box bounced off Umpire Pfirman's back. This time Sharman delivered with a two sacker to the left field fence and overcame the Dill kiddies. Mills was thrown out by Hoffman and Spencer scored to Bohannon.

The last run came in the eighth when Caton beat out a hit to short, was sacrificed to second by Bush and scored on McHenry's ringing single to the middle garden. The score:

MORNING GAME.

Ferguson and Brozowski staged a genuine pitchers' battle in the morning game, neither team scoring until the thirteenth. Time and again runners were in a scoring position but at these stages old Mr. Pinch Hitter would take a vacation and scoreless innings were clipped off with automatic-like precision.

In the sixth inning Frankfort wasted a glorious chance to grab a safe lead as before Ferguson could get set the Kentuckians had clogged the sacks with no one down. Thomas led off with a hit, Kimble drew a pass and Angermeir beat a bunt. The situation was lick-lish, but Ferguson kept his nerve and when Bohannon tapped to Bush Thomas was nailed at the plate on a force out. Hall then hit to the infield and Kimble perished at the plate. Boulware contributed the third out when he whiffed at three.

It was in the thirteenth when Frankfort to all intents and purposes won the game. Kimble shot a single into right, Ferguson threw Angermeir's bunt past second, all hands being safe. Bohannon clipped a single to right and the bases were full. Hall sent a long fly to Sharman that emitted Kimble with the first run of the game. Boulware hit to Caton and his throw home was too late to get Angermeir. Hoffman breezed out Ferguson tossed out his pitching opponent.

Portsmouth then waded right into the failing Brazozowski. Sharman earned a pass on four wide ones. Mills singled to center. Spencer hit to the pitcher and all hands were safe when Brozozowski failed to get Sharman at third. Caton singled, so did Bush through the pitchers' box and in scampered Sharman, Mills and Spencer and the stuff was off. It was a beautifully played game and the fans stuck it out. It was one of those kind you read about in the little blue book. The score:

A FEW PICKUPS AND GROUNDERS

The fans were certainly relieved when they saw Umpire Pfirman adjust his regalia and then heard him announce the batteries.

Ferguson and Brozozowski pitched grand ball in the morning contest. Aside from being a trifle wild they completely fooled the ballers.

Sharman and Spencer staged a little playlet Monday afternoon entitled "The Hitting Pair." They whanged out six clean hits.

The Frankfort team the way it does up has no business being so far behind the other teams. It is pretty well balanced.

The fans were full of applause yesterday. The applauded all the plays, visiting and home and it reminded the fans of the days when Portsmouth won its pennants in the Ohio State.

Bush's catch in the afternoon struggle was a brilliant bit of fielding. He has earned a permanent home here.

Thomas at third for the Old Taylors looks like a player who should set higher. He throws accurately, fields cleanly and has a lot of pepper.

Bohannon can still ride the agate. He worked with a lot of vim Monday and urged his players to cop the morning contest and they all but turned the trick.

Angermeir formerly played in the Blue Grass league. He is an old timer, but his arm is as good as it ever was and he bats timely and hard.

Failed To Hit Safely

Some one spread a little alum on Larry Jacobus' batting average Monday. He failed to get one safe going out on infield taps. But Larry pitched one swell game and he had the old Taylors feeling out of his hand.

MAMAUX IS GOING FINE

Mamaux is certainly pitching wonderful ball for the Pittsburgh Pirates. The former Ohio State leaguer beat Chicago yesterday 1 to 0. He has now won 6 games out of 7 for the Pirates. Mamaux was picked up from the Huntington team. Many fans declare the lad to be one of the most skilled hoxmen who ever cut one over Ohio State league plates.

TO STRENGTHEN SENATORS

The Charleston team will be strengthened at once.

Manager Biddy Beers and Secretary Chilton have lines out for three new men, which if landed will greatly strengthen the battle front of the Senators, who have now lost seven games in a row.

Callahan Released

Louisville, Ky., June 1.—Dave Callahan, an outfielder, with the Louisville American Association club since the latter part of the 1911 season, has been released to Wichita of the Western league.

Say Caton Was Safe

For awhile it looked like the first game Monday would not be finished as Manager Spencer threatened to send his men to the clubhouse when Umpire Baron called Caton out at the plate.

McHenry shot a single to right and Caton came tearing home. Hall made a fine peg to the plate but most of the fans thought that Caton beat the ball home and let out a terrific roar when win it out again in the thirteenth.

Bacon waved the local shortstop out. An argument ensued and when Jacobus ruled that Caton was safe many of the fans left the park.

FULL OF GOOD PLAYERS

"There are more hustling young ball players in the Ohio State league than in any league I have ever seen," said Umpire Pfirman last night. "The league is actually full of prospects and the scouts should reap a rich harvest in this league when the dog days of August return."

Fans Like The Swatters

The fans warm up to the boys who can ride the old pill. Sharman, Spencer, Mills, Jacobus, Diltz and McHenry were given the glad hand every time they stepped up to the plate Monday.

TEAM SHOWS CLASS

It has been many months since Portsmouth fans were privileged to witness two prettier games than the ones staged in Millbrook Monday.

The Frankfort team despite their lowly position battled courageously against the leaders and would have secured an even split had they secured the breaks in the morning game. Manager Bohannon has a scrappy club and the "Old Taylors" battled the home team down to the last ditch yesterday. Rickard and Brozozowski showed a lot of stuff and the team fielded sharply.

DE PALMA WINNER OF BIG AUTOMOBILE RACE

Indianapolis, June 1.—Ralph De Palma won the fifth annual 500 mile international sweepstakes on the Indianapolis motor speedway here Monday in the remarkable time of 5 hours, 33 minutes, 55½ seconds. The victor traveled on average speed of 89.84 miles an hour and broke the record established in 1914 by Rene Thomas, who finished in 6 hours, 8 minutes 45.9 seconds.

Dario Resta, who finished second, contested every mile of the way with the winner and the battle of these two pilots was the feature of the contest. Resta finished only four minutes after the winner crossed the tape. Restas time was 5 hours, 37 minutes, 31.91 seconds. Gil Anderson was third and completed the race in 5 hours, 42 minutes, 27.57 seconds. Out of 23 cars that started eleven finished, of which ten received prize money.

That De Palmas victory was a popular one was shown by the demonstration by the thousands of spectators who rose and cheered wildly as the winner finished his last lap. De Palma's first words were praise for the mechanician who rode by his side during the long grind.

De Palma drove a consistent race. He never was back of fourth place. He wrested the lead from Resta in the 175th mile. He lost the lead in the 315th mile when he stopped at the pits but regained it in the 335th when Resta skidded into the retaining wall and was forced to make a fire change as a result.

This year's race was the first held here in which no person was injured. The track was ideal for high speed. Speedway officials said today that the record will probably stand for years.

Ten drivers divided the $50,000 prize money of which De Palma's share is $20,000.

GREAT PAIR

It has been a long, long time since Portsmouth has picked up a pair of infielders as the Caton-Bush combination. Their work around the keystone stack is smooth and accurate. They turn seemingly impossible plays into outs and handled everything slammed their way in skilled fashion. They have the knack of smothering the pill, can whip it around and cover enough ground for a circuit lot.

Nutter Is Sold

According to word from Charleston Outfielder Nutter has been sold to the Cedar Rapids team and will report there just as soon as Shortstop Daubert returns to Charleston. He has been playing with Ray Ryan's Rocky Mount team, but does not like the South and is anxious to get back to the Ohio State.

Fans Well Pleased

Many Portsmouth fans glimpsed the local team for the first time Monday. Bad weather had kept them away from the park until yesterday. They saw a well managed, smooth baseball machine in action. And they heartily approved it.

Returning on the cars from the park the fans heaped all sorts of praise upon the team as it lines up today. The clock-like precision with which it made plays was a revelation to the fans. Many of them unhesitatingly declared the team to be one of the very best that has ever represented Portsmouth. Manager Spencer is working right with the boys and splendid results have so far been obtained from the successful methods pursued by the local leader.

ON SWING-AROUND CIRCUIT

After a few hours' stay in the city President Joe Carr of the Ohio State league left on the noon N. & W. train for Ironton Monday afternoon. He is going to take a swing around the circuit before returning to Columbus.

President Carr is right on the job as he is keeping in touch with the affairs of the league. He is well pleased with the enthusiasm the cities are showing over their new teams and is confident that the league will send up a lot of players to higher leagues this season.

KEEPS THINGS MOVING

Umpire Pfirman was given a great hand when he trotted out on the field yesterday afternoon. He is popular here because he keeps the players moving and sees every play that is pulled off. He was unable to reach here in time for Monday morning's game and Jacobus and Bacon handled the indicator.

POND CREEK DEFEATED

Pond Creek nine went down to defeat Sunday at Dry Run by a score of 13 to 5, Dry Run being on the long end of the score. Montayon caught for Pond Creek while Zoeffe and Veneer took turns in the box. Sadler caught for the winners and Lewis did the twirling.

FINDING THEIR PLACE.

Data gathered by Farm Life, one of the most progressive agricultural papers in the land, from all over the country, but more particularly in Indiana, show that twice as many automobiles are being sold this year as last.

While these figures appear abnormal it is more than likely they are within the actual figures rather than beyond them. Locally, the sales agents can vouch for their reasonable sales and the same story comes from every point.

But the most significant condition the inquiries of Farm Life reveal is that seventy-five per cent of the machines sold are going to farmers. This, however, is not peculiar, it is but the working out of the natural and inevitable, coming a little more rapidly than could have been anticipated from two causes, the lowering of prices and the general advent of farm prosperity, through high prices for products and bountiful crops. The popularity, the general acceptance of the automobile in the country is inevitable because its modern progress and necessities are making it more valuable, almost indispensible, because of its wider and quicker adaptation to farm uses. Help is scarcer, the farmer does not work the long hours he used to and time saving is a value that he is rapidly learning appreciation of.

But there is another consideration for which the automobile becomes the most valuable adjunct to the farm. It is going to become a most potent factor in keeping the boys and girls at home. It will destroy much of the loneliness and monotony of rural life, it will not only furnish diversion to the youth, but it will bring that restfulness of change and fast motion that is the best recreation the whole family can have.

A WRONGFUL LESSON.

The Bluefield Telegraph is much moved by the numberless stories borne in the daily news columns and the accounts of special writers of the terrible days that have fallen upon Belgium. It is with the greatest concern it contemplates the havoc wrought in that devoted land and fully well it understands how the great heart of the world has gone out to its people in the sorrow and desolation amidst which they sit, but, as it sees it, no darker history was ever written than that in the frightful atrocities wrought by Belgium upon the natives of the Congo, a dark and bloody record that has been torn from the memory of men, so to speak. And for this Belgium is now paying more than thrice fold, the measure of retribution.

That is a most impressive lesson to draw and may be a moral set for the wholesome instruction of the natives. The only weakness in it is the facts do not warrant the illustration, to say naught of its conclusions, and then it isn't fair. Grosser libel was never put upon a people than the tales of the shocking outrages in darkest Africa. They were born in greed and a devilish purpose and were tossed aside when they no longer served a purpose, and so are rightly forgotten, or should be. The lesson isn't fair because it makes the least guilty suffer the most. Belgium was never a nation to rob, to oppress and to persecute, her ways have ever been the ways of peace and gentleness. So is it with France. There are no dark tales of wrong and blood in her conquests and dominions; alien lands and ignorant races she has ruled in kindness and justice, in so far as human imperfections allow, but 'tis weak, tiny Belgium and France that bear the brunt of the terrors and horrors of battle, while their allies, who have sinned a thousand times worse and oftener, know comparatively little of war's ravages.

One thing war has brought us to be proud of, and that is a home grown flag. Few people know that flags, the kind the government uses, are made of imported wool. The treasury department has been experimenting in a new production and finds that, undergoing certain processes, home grown cotton will make just as serviceable an article.

It is first one thing and then another. No sooner do we get the scourge of the legislature off our hands than we learn the seventeen year locusts are headed this way.

In the opinion of the adoring New York Mail, Teddy is not a come back. He always arrived and always will be.

KNEE DEEP IN JUNE, 1915

MAY BE ONLY A MOOD.

A contemporary says the agitation for purer milk, more sunshine, more play grounds, for training of mothers in hygiene, for prevention of contagious disease and so forth and et cetera, proves how the great world is moving onward and upward. May be so, sonny, may be so; but in our dark moods we are haunted with a suspicion that if some people were only half as busy agitating and helping in the pandemonium, but twice as busy doing something for themselves it would be a better and a happier world than they are ever going to make it.

Take every big thing you hear with a grain of salt. We were told Italy demands Trieste because all Trieste wanted to come back home. Today we are reading cablegrams telling how the populace of Trieste is rising up and smashing everything Italian.

There is considerable glib talk about treason to this country, these days. As this country is not at war with any other government, treason to it right now is a practical impossibility. A citizen can scarce commit treason with his tongue in time of peace.

A lot of policemen and detectives, assembled at Cincinnati, last week, formed an association for the suppression of crime. And here we absurd taxpayers have been assuming all the time that was what we paid 'em for.

Never laugh at your fellow man's effeminacy—you don't know how it may recoil on you. Great Britain is buying hundreds of thousands of wrist watches for her soldiers.

Over in New York some fellows are hollowing hard times too and thirty-six thousand more other fellows are running automobiles this year than last.

So far we have been able to keep cool, thank you. What we would like though to experience once more is just a touch of high temperature.

Since the verdict is in, our namesake of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, has some doubts as to whether Teddy will run for president again or go into vaudeville.

If the police have run down the slayers of Officer Baucus there can be no denial it is a considerable feather in their cap.

The chief of police of Chicago says there is no politics in his department. May he be believes that, nobody else does.

A most marvelous thing. It didn't rain Sunday! But it did threaten to all day.

Progress On The C. & O. Bridge Piers

With the completion of another small pier on this side of the river the Dravo Contracting Company will complete the pier work on the Ohio side of the river. The Dravo Company is doing the substructure work on the new C. & O. Northern bridge which is to span the Ohio river above Scioto-ville.

Eight small piers between the large Ohio river bank pier and the hill abuttment have been completed and excavation for the base of the ninth has been started. The middle river pier was completed several days ago. Several wooden forms remain to be taken from the only middle river pier.

The large number of people who visited the bridge site Sunday were greatly impressed with the construction of the hill abuttment. It is one of the finest pieces of masonry of the kind ever seen in this part of the country. Many compliments are passed on the large finished concrete abuttment and piers.

Work on the Kentucky shore and through Kentucky bottom land is moving along nicely. Excavation for piers has been started and concrete will soon be poured for piers on that side of the river. Sand tipple, concrete mixer, derricks and whirlers are working on the other side of the river like they were on this side when the work was fairly underway.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

Less than fifty yards from where a poker game was in full blast, William Ehrheart, an employee of the Carlye Paving Brick company, was shot four times and seriously wounded by Izar Church of New Boston, Decoration Day morning about 11:30 o'clock, the shooting taking place in the hollow north of the Carlyle plant.

Ehrheart was endeavoring to collect a gambling debt of $3 of several months standing when he was fired upon, according to his statement after the shooting. He claims to have loaned Church $3 in a crap game several months ago, which he had failed to pay back to him. He also claims to have been induced to go up into the hollow under the pretense that the debt would be paid.

Church later gave himself up to the authorities and admitted having fired the shots that wounded Ehrheart, but pleaded self-defense. He was lodged in the New Boston jail, and late in the afternoon, was removed to the county jail, where he is still confined.

Shooting Took Place North of Carlyle Plant

The shooting occurred in the hollow about one-sixth of a mile north from the Carlyle plant. No one outside the principles witnessed the shooting, but a dozen or more men were within hearing distance of the shots.

Ehrheart fell in his tracks immediately after the first shot lodged in his body. He claims that Church shot him three times while he was lying on the ground, unable to move.

The first shot took effect in his left side, just above the hip, and is the only serious wound. Another shot lodged in his right cheek below the eye, and came out just above his mouth. Another one lodged in the muscle of his right arm, and the fourth in his right shoulder. The last three shots inflicted painful flesh wounds, which, however, are not considered of a serious nature.

Warren Weeks, Harre Day and Doc Massie, friends of Ehrheart, who were within hearing distance of the shots, ran to his assistance, and with the help of others in that vicinity, carried the wounded man on a streecher secured from the Carlyle company's shale shed to the boarding house of William Weeks on the Gallia pike.

Drs. Cheney and Hutchens Hurriedly Summoned

Drs. Cheney, of New Boston, and Hutchens, of Sciotoville, were hurriedly summoned, and both arrived soon after Ehrheart had been taken into the Weeks home. They dressed his wounds, but no attempt was made at that time to probe for the bullets.

Misunderstanding over the calling of an ambulance delayed Ehrheart's removal to the Hempstead hospital until about five o'clock, and he laid for fully five hours at the Weeks home suffering from his wounds without medical attention, outside of the first visit of the physicians.

Gun User Calmly Walks Away From Scene

Church, the self-confessed gun-user, walked away from the scene of the shooting, accompanied by his brother, George Church, who was only a short distance away from the spot where Ehrheart fell.

They walked down the hollow to the Gallia pike and started west on Gallia pike toward their home in New Boston. While passing the second house east of the new filtration plant, Izar Church was seen to throw the gun, which he had wrapped in two handkerchiefs, into the weeds along the side of the road. It was later found there by Sheriff Smith, and is now in his custody.

All chambers of the gun were empty, Church having discharged the fifth cartridge against the side of the hill immediately after firing the fourth shot into Ehrheart's body.

Sheriff Smith was notified by telephone a few minutes after the shooting and at once called up the New Boston officials and requested them to arrest the Church brothers, it having been reported to him that one of them had done the shooting. He and his deputy, Rome Arthur, left at once for the scene of the alleged crime on a street car.

Izar Church Gives Himself Up

Before their arrival Izar Church had given himself up, and he and his brother were prisoners in the New Boston jail when the county officials arrived.

Sheriff Smith left his deputy at the jail and went to the Weeks boarding house near Star Yards to interview the wounded man. He examined all persons knowing anything about the affair, and also visited the physicians and got their story before returning to the New Boston jail.

Two stories were related to the sheriff, according to his statement late Monday afternoon, one by the victim and the other by Izar Church, the gun-user. They varied only in the essential detail that Ehrheart claimed he was shot from the back, while Church contended he shot in self-defense.

Ehrheart told the sheriff that a loan of $3, which he made to Church several months ago in a crap game, was directly responsible for the shooting.

He said that he met Church in a New Boston saloon early Monday morning and asked him to return the $3 which he had loaned him. Church, he said, evidenced no resentment to him for having broached the subject and told him to come up in the hollow later in the morning, at which time he would pay him.

They parted on friendly terms, according to Ehrheart, and about two hours later he and "Bird-Neck" Brown, his companion, started for the hollow.

Favorite Rendezvous For Gamblers

It developed after the shooting that the hollow referred to was the favorite rendezvous for the gamblers of New Boston and vicinity, and that hardly a Sunday passed but that there was a big poker game or crap game in progress.

When Ehrheart and Brown arrived there, the former said that a poker game was in full blast. He named Wesley Sutton, Charles Jones, Ben Collins, John Miller and George Church as the men who were playing when he arrived.

A half-dozen others were looking on, he said, among whom was Izar Church. Soon after his arrival, he claims that Church walked away from the game and started in a westerly direction. Ehrheart claims that he took this as his cue to follow, inasmuch as he understood that Church wanted to pay him.

"What Are You Following Me For?"

After walking about fifty yards, the two turned north again, Church in the lead and Ehrheart following, according to the latter. Only a short distance was required before they were out of sight from the rest, a thick clump of bushes hiding them from view.

Ehrheart says that Church suddenly turned around to him and said, "——— you, what are you following me for?" Ehrheart says he replied, "I thought you said you wanted to pay me that $3," Church's reply to that was to pull a gun and exclaim, "Damn you, I am going to kill you!" according to Ehrheart, who added that he said, "Don't do that, Izar," and turned around to leave him.

While his back was turned, he said that Church fired once, the bullet entering his left side just above the hip. He said he fell to the ground, unable to move the lower part of his body, and that while in that position Church walked up to him and cursing him several times, continued to fire at him three times, each bullet entering his body.

Ehrheart's story up until the time he left the poker game is corroborated in every detail by his companion, "Bird-Neck" Brown, according to Sheriff Smith.

Stories Coincide Says The Sheriff

The sheriff says that Church's story is exactly similar also to that of Ehrheart, except that he claims that Ehrheart put his right hand to his hip pocket as he approached him as if to shoot him. He also claims that Ehrheart told him in the saloon earlier that unless he paid him he would take it out of his (Church's) hide. This statement, both Ehrheart and Brown deny, the sheriff says. Church has repeatedly declared to the sheriff that he shot in self-defense, according to that official.

George Church, Izar's brother, was released from jail late Monday afternoon by Mayor Davis after it was shown that he had nothing to do with the shooting.

Prosecution of the five alleged poker players will follow Tuesday evening in Mayor Davis' court, according to his statement. They will be charged with gambling.

Ehrheart is about 25 years of age and has been working as miner in the shale bank of the Carlyle Paving Brick Company for the past two months. He resided at 1224 Lincoln street, this city, but since he has been working for the Carlyle company, he has been boarding at the home of Lee McKee, near the Carlyle works.

Izar Church is a police character of New Boston, having been arrested several times, but never before on such a serious offense. Until recently he conducted a billiard parlor in New Boston, but sold out, since which time he has been doing nothing. At one time he was employed at the plant of the Whitaker-Glessner company.

Dr. Wendelken stated Tuesday morning that Ehrheart's spine was affected by the bullet, his body being paralyzed from the hips down. A consultation of physicians will be held this morning to determine the best course to pursue in treating the wounds. It was also stated this morning that his chances for recovery were brighter than yesterday.

Girl Shoots Out Her Heart With A Load Of Shot

Ironton, Ohio, June 1.—Coroner O'Neill went to Federal Creek, back of Millers, this county, today to hold a post-mortem examination over the body of Miss Dimple Richardson, pretty sixteen year old niece of C. Henderson, a prominent Federal Creek farmer, who Monday morning placed the muzzle of a shot gun to her heart and pulled the trigger, inflicting a horrible wound in her left side, from which death resulted within a few minutes. The members of the Henderson family were at the barn, a short distance from the house, doing the morning work, when they heard the explosion of the gun and rushed to the house. They found the Richardson girl lying on the floor in the throes of death. She gasped "I shot myself—" and made an effort to speak further but was unable to do so and died within a very brief time, before medical assistance could arrive. Dr. O'Neill gave the members of the Henderson family permission to have the body prepared for burial and will conduct an investigation today.

Miss Richardson's home, until about twelve months ago, was in Cincinnati, her mother having died some time ago and she had been making her home with her father. About a year ago she went to Federal Creek to make her home with her uncle, Mr. Henderson. She was a beautiful girl and was interested in the affairs of the community in which she made her home. The members of the Henderson family can ascribe no reason for suicide and think that death may have been accidental. The girl had gone to memorial services at Millersport on Sunday and returned home in the best of spirits.

Her husband is at the Athens asylum. She has an eight-year-old son. He will inherit property at Manchester valued at $1,000.

Bicycle Races Successful; Bender And Brunner Win

Highly successful from every standpoint were the two bicycle races run Monday afternoon. Donald Bender won the five mile event for boys under 16 and Howard Brunner won the ten mile endurance race for lads over 16. Gallia street, from Waller to Chillicothe, and Chillicothe to Seventeenth were filled with people eager to view the racers.

Promoters of the races complimented the valiant service the police rendered in keeping the race course clear and it was through their hard efforts that no one was struck or hurt by any of the riders. The interest displayed by the racers and spectators went far beyond expectation.

The first race started promptly at two o'clock, the scheduled time. The racers started from the postoffice, north on Chillicothe to Cole's Boulevard, east on the Boulevard to Kinney's Lane, west on Kinney's Lane to Offnere, south on Offnere to Gallia and west on Gallia to the postoffice. Francis Knapp and Stanley Prichard were the promoters of the races and the success Monday will mean that more races will be run. The next big race will probably be on July 4.

The bicycle dealers who were among the prize givers are R. S. Prichard, B. Davenport, Francis Knapp, Harley-Davidson Sales company, Glockner Hardware company, Homer Brunton and Emil Arthurs.

A large number of contestants entered their names in the races but never appeared to ride. Thirteen contestants started in the ten mile race. The first race, five miles, was once around the Boulevard while the ten mile race consisted of two laps of the same course.

Donald Bender, 15, who carried off first prize in the five mile race made the course in fifteen minutes and 25 seconds. He received a pair of tires from B. Davenport. Ray Bybee, 14, came in second. He received a spring seat from Homer Brunton. The remaining eight prize winners finished as follows, receiving the below listed prizes: Third, A. Noel; fourth, Albert Storer; fifth, Jack Sargent; sixth, Reginald Miller; seventh, J. Collis; eighth, H. Waters; ninth, Warren Shump; tenth, Howard Smith:

Five Students Get Diplomas At N. B. Commencement Tonight

Every detail connected with the perfecting of an extraordinary program for the New Boston High School commencement has been carefully looked after by Superintendent S. D. Eckhart, and the graduation exercises will take place at the Millbrook Casino Tuesday evening at eight o'clock as previously announced.

Hon. O. T. Carson, editor of the Ohio Educational Monthly, and ex-state school commissioner, will deliver the class address.

Bode's orchestra of this city has been secured to furnish the music for the evening. The Steel Plant Boys' Band will be present to render several selections. The majority of the members of the band are pupils of the village schools. The school chorus composed of pupils from different grades has been practicing several special songs for the occasion. Rev. Morris Bridwell, of the New Boston Baptist church, who delivered the baccalaureate sermon Sunday evening, will have charge of the devotional part of the exercises. At the conclusion of a short speech, Supt. S. D. Eckhart, will present the five students with their much coveted diplomas. The graduates are Golda Alene O'Neal, Elza Carl Porter, Ernest S. Taylor, Raymond L. Haselip and Louie Quan Chinn.

The stage will be prettily decorated with the class colors, purple and gold. The class flower, the white rose, will be abundantly used in the decorations along with ferns and palms. The members of the school board have been invited to attend and they are expected to be present in a body. One member of the board will probably make a short talk.

The New Boston schools have for some time held the distinction of being the best of any village of a like size in the state. The school board is composed of the following members: Frank G. Taylor, president; Thomas York, John Bell, J. C. Harris, John Noel and Clerk Roy H. Coburn. The faculty role includes S. D. Eckhart, Supt.; D. E. Ross, principal; J. F. Warner, Edna E. Geist, N. E. POLICE STILL SEARCH FOR ALLEGED GUN MAN IN THE BAUCUS CASE

Henry Glenn, alias "High Yaller," whom both Joe S. Smith, alias "Florida Kid," and William Jones, alias "Jungle Shine," in their alleged confessions to the police named as the gunman who killed Detective James A. Baucus, was still at large Tuesday morning.

While investigating clues at both Columbus and Cincinnati, the officials are inclined to believe that "High Yaller is in some labor construction camp along the line of the N. & W. railway in West Virginia and these will be thoroughly scoured in search of him.

Detective Hardman reported to the police Monday that he had made a thorough search of the Columbus workhouse for Glenn, but at the time was under the impression that he was light-skinned because of the nickname he bears. He was told that Glenn is very dark. Another visit will be made to the institution, it having been reported that Glenn was recently sent to that place to serve a sentence. Officer Charles Flowers, who is well acquainted with Glenn, will accompany Detective Hartman on his next visit.

A local colored citizen reported to the police that he had seen "High Yaller" in Cincinnati last Friday afternoon. Bob Reno, the local N. & W. detective, brushed directly by him. Reno, of course, did not know the man, and the colored citizen was unaware at the time that "High Yaller" was wanted.

It is known, however, that "Shine" only recently received a post-card from "High Yaller," which was mailed from some labor camp in West Virginia.

"Shine," in his confession to the police, said the ruse "High Yaller" resorted to in order to catch Baucus off his guard came near failing at first. When Baucus came into the cahouse, where they had gone for the night and commanded them to stand up, "High Yaller," unobserved by him, took his overall jacket in which he had concealed his gun, and which he had been using for a pillow, and threw it, unobserved by Baucus, up into a bunk overhead. When Baucus finished searching them and ordered them to move on, "High Yaller" reached up and got the jacket with the gun just inside the sleeve, and threw it across his arm.

While walking along, he asked "Florida Kid" for a cigarette, and turning to Baucus asked him for a match. Baucus told him that he had none, but thought, perhaps, he might get one from some of the switchmen at Kendall avenue crossing, which they were nearing. "High Yaller," he said, renewed his request for a match, and when Baucus reached out to give him one, "High Yaller" shot him.

Satisfied that they have positive evidence of the commission of the crime that resulted in the murder, the police officials Tuesday morning addressed an appeal to Judge James S. Thomas for the release of Kendall Fields. John Anderson and Oswell Pennington, the former suspects, just a little earlier than if they had not, at one time been accused of the crime. The men were convicted of chicken stealing. Fields is in the Mansfield reformatory and the other two in the Cincinnati workhouse.

TRACTION BRIDGES ARE BEING BUILT

Contractors Armstrong and Coda who have the contract for the construction of three bridges and several concrete culverts and other concrete work for the Ohio Valley Traction Company for their traction extension from Sciotoville to Ironton, have about completed the concrete piers for the bridge over the Little Scioto river. The track will go up Second street, Sciotoville, the abutment being at the east end of the street. The line on the east side of the Little Scioto will be between the last pier and abutment of the C. & O. Northern bridge.

Two piers and an abutment have been completed on the west side of the Little Scioto. The highest pier of the three is on the west shore and is 45 feet above the ground. The base of the pier is twenty feet in the ground. Solid rock has been struck in excavating for the base of the east bank pier. The east pier will be 30 feet high, the solid rock base not making it necessary for the pier to go so far into the ground. The bridge will be sixty feet above low water stage in the Little Scioto.

The steel channel span will be 150 feet long, the entire bridge being about 450 feet long. Concrete bases for steel girder supports are also completed.

Bridges of about the same size will have to be built over Pine Creek and at Storm Run just this side of Ironton.

Takes a Job

Cecil Bennett, of Storkdale, has accepted a job with one of the contractors on the C. & O. Northern grade work.

Progress Made On C. & O. Grading

Langhorn, Langhorn, Company and Snead, contractors, who have the contract for grading the first one and seven-tenths miles of the C. & O. Northern right of way from Sciotoville, have a large number of men at work and are rushing work. Their work begins at the abuttment north of Gallia pike and will consist mainly of cutting away a large portion of Bahner hill and the making of several big fills. A small stream emptying in the Little Scioto back of Bahner hill will be filled over as a concrete culvert over 80 feet long is being constructed to take care of the water.

A temporary trestle is being built so that dump cars can be run out from the hill, dirt taken from the hill being used to make the fill. The side of Bahner hill facing the Little Scioto river has been cleared of all trees so that work can move along without a hitch of any kind. The rainy weather of the past week put the men back but little.

The other contractors along the right of way who are doing grade work have numerous steam shovels, dump trains, dinky engines and an extra large number of men at work.

The route of the railway through the hills will make a picturesque ride for a tourist desiring only a short trip. The road runs through the heart of the hills.
